Josephine Valley
June 3 - 1875

Dear Mrs Carr. Where are you?
Lost in conventions elections women's rights & fights - & buried beneath many a load of musty granger hay. You always seem inaccess-ible to me, as if you were in a crowd, & even when I write, my written words seem to be heard by many that I do not like.

I wish some of your predictions given ⁱⁿ your last may come true like the first you made long ago. Yet somehow it seems hardly likely that you will ever be sufficiently free, for your labors multiply from year to year. Yet who knows.

I found poor Larnous grave as you directed. The upper end of the valley seems fairly silent & empty without him.

Kurt got fine sketches & I found many beauties & truths of all kinds. Mack & Walt will tell you all. I send you my button hole plume. Farewell
