

1875-11-03

Letter from John Muir to [Jeanne C.] Carr, 1875 Nov 3.

John Muir

Follow this and additional works at: <https://scholarlycommons.pacific.edu/muir-correspondence>

Recommended Citation

Muir, John, "Letter from John Muir to [Jeanne C.] Carr, 1875 Nov 3." (1875). John Muir Correspondence (PDFs). 326.

<https://scholarlycommons.pacific.edu/muir-correspondence/326>

This Article is brought to you for free and open access by the John Muir Correspondence 1856-1914 at Scholarly Commons. It has been accepted for inclusion in John Muir Correspondence (PDFs) by an authorized administrator of Scholarly Commons. For more information, please contact mgibney@pacific.edu.

[Original letter in mounted set of letters to Mrs. Carr, # 32].

Old Yosemite home,

Nov. 3d, 1875.

Dear Mrs. Carr:

I'm delighted in coming out of the woods to learn that the Doctor is elected to do the work he is so well fitted for.

I've had a glorious season of forest grace, notwithstanding the hundred cañons I've crossed, and the innumerable gorges, gulches, and avalanchal corrugations.

A day or two of resting and lingering in my dear old haunts, and then down, town, work.

I'm sorry about Keith's stocks, though of scarce any real consequence, they yet serve to perturb and spoil his best moods and works.

It seems a whole round season since I saw you, but have I not seen the King Sequoia in forest glory.

Love to all.

John Muir

RELIANCE BOND