

1877-06-18

Letter from [Ann G. Muir] to Daniel [H. Muir], 1877 [June] 18.

Ann G. Muir

Follow this and additional works at: <https://scholarlycommons.pacific.edu/muir-correspondence>

Recommended Citation

Muir, Ann G., "Letter from [Ann G. Muir] to Daniel [H. Muir], 1877 [June] 18." (1877). John Muir Correspondence (PDFs). 366.

<https://scholarlycommons.pacific.edu/muir-correspondence/366>

This Article is brought to you for free and open access by the John Muir Correspondence 1856-1914 at Scholarly Commons. It has been accepted for inclusion in John Muir Correspondence (PDFs) by an authorized administrator of Scholarly Commons. For more information, please contact mgibney@pacific.edu.

[June]

from me, and so many grand-children now - I daily think of them all, and of all their parents, with much love, hoping we may one day all meet in our heavenly home above, and rejoice together for ever and ever.

Joanna is somewhat better and rides out all she can -

The rest of the family are in their usual health -

The girls join me in earnest loving wishes to you all affectionate!

Your Mother

Portage 15th 1877

Dear Daniel

This morning I enjoyed the great pleasure of receiving your magnificent present
- what could have been more acceptable to me, than your own likeness - but how can I thank you as I should - for such thoughtful kindness - I shall ever cherish it as one of my greatest treasures - I had hoped to have seen you yourself at Portage before this time - but will still hope to see you - when you conveniently can -

We have had a musical - convention here twelve hands united - and last week we have had an Adventist Camp meeting - there were over forty tents of different sizes - one of them very large where they held meetings

Last Sunday over three thousand were present at their services - David spent the entire ^{day} there but did not like what they preached -

In a very few days you will again have added another year to your existence in this world - I do heartily congratulate you, and hope very many happy days and years are in store for you and Emma and the children

May the Lord bless all of you abundantly with his loving kindness and tender mercy -

How thankful I should be that all my family have so mercifully preserved and are a daily comfort to me although many of them are par-