been glad to see you - we had a very pleasant talk about old times and places, her family are all well and prosperous -

John Reid has got home and is much pleased with the arrangements that were made while you were with us -

Anna is still at the farm but will be home soon -

I am sorry we kept your spoon and fork - but will send them some time we all join in loving kind wishes to you all, - affectionately your Mother

Portage Aug^{8th} 1877

Dear Dend.

I hope you reached home safe and well - and found Emma and baby enjoying good health - I fancy Anita would have a good deal to tell about her numerous friends and Cousins - when she got home -

Your father did not get away as soon as he intended on account of the Railroad strikes -

- but he left here on Monday the 30th of July - and he had the pleasure of seeing our nice new sidewalk it being finished by that time he also made me a present of four large books -

Mary is still with us, she is engaged in crayoning - John Keild and Margt's pictures and will do yours for me before she leaves, if you are able to send us a likeness, I would like to have it done -

Joanna has been in rather a drooping condition since you were here - but feels better for two days past - could you send her some thing to help her -

Since you were here I have constantly taken the medicine you prescribed for me - for a few days I am much better -

This morning I had a call from Mrs McKeith she was much pleased to know of your visit home and would have
