UNTITLED

Would that this shatter'd frame of man walk off
To the ends of earth to meet the very muse,
Whose designs on life he deigns to scoff;
No picardy solace this will abuse.
Dark haired mistress who hath stole my lyre
Dare you cast off this mantle quickly so
Killing man, and art, and muse with fire?
Seek no shelter in charr'd remains of woe.
Beloved gone, stealing light and hope away.
Blacken'd soul give way to day at the morn
While still the embers dying seem to say,
Build anew music of light; cease to scorn.
Would that man walk on, lit by inner flame
Dimm'd but burning still; life with but a name.
