Dear Bishop:

The Beaver, Mr John Muir visits Oregon, in pursuit of Scientific investigations. I have taken the liberty of referring him to you, as the one most able to tell him how to get around, and whom to see.

I trust you are not wholly unacquainted with Mr. M. His contributions to Science have already made him well known, and you have doubtless read his Snow Banners, & ascent of Mt Shasta with the delight that I have experienced.

Any courtesy you extend will be gratefully appreciated by Mr M., as also by

Yours Respectfully

Chas. H. Allen.
