Friend Muir:

I am glad you are to go to Shasta with Gray & Hooker. Had I had two days' notice I would have gone, also, if your party had given me permission. It is now too late.

I send enclosed letters to Congdon, Gatch and Bishop Morris. If you can, present all of them. You will find Pres. Gatch a pleasant gentleman, and Bishop Morris is a plain genial man, who will know more of routes of travel, & how to get around, probably, than any one else in Oregon.

All send kindly greetings, & I hope you will have a splendid time.

Very truly

Chas. H. Allen
