John Muir, Esq.,
Dear Sir:

We suppose that Mr. Drake has already mentioned the contemplated publication
of your paper on the California bird
in the January numbr.
Meanwhile we beg
that you will tell

Now whether you have in mind any other papers suitable for Scribner. In fact
we should be glad to learn what are your enthusiasms and whether you have time to put them on paper.
We have thought of a paper on Farm Life in California - the picturesque side of it - but do not know whether you would write con-taneously of the subject. As our best work is unsolicited, we hesitate
about naming subjects, but trust that if our overtures are welcome to you you will frankly write us suggesting the topics that are nearest your heart. We are indeed

Sincerely yours,
Scribner
