

1878-02-11

Letter from John Mc Landburgh to John Muir, 1878 Feb 11.

John McLandburgh

Follow this and additional works at: <https://scholarlycommons.pacific.edu/muir-correspondence>

Recommended Citation

McLandburgh, John, "Letter from John Mc Landburgh to John Muir, 1878 Feb 11." (1878). John Muir Correspondence (PDFs). 401.

<https://scholarlycommons.pacific.edu/muir-correspondence/401>

This Article is brought to you for free and open access by the John Muir Correspondence 1856-1914 at Scholarly Commons. It has been accepted for inclusion in John Muir Correspondence (PDFs) by an authorized administrator of Scholarly Commons. For more information, please contact mgibney@pacific.edu.

No. 90 La Salle St

Chicago July 11th 1898

Mr. John Ellis,

San Francisco, Cal.

My dear sir:

I want to thank you for the pleasure your "Humming Bird of the California Waterfalls" inscription has given me.

We have read and re-read it at home with increasing pleasure and are charmed with its music, poetry and artistic expression.

You are one of the true poets, I should there were more such in our world. In this busy material age we are too often blind and deaf to the sights and sounds of nature - Her harmonies seem to be recognized by the few

Have you not written some books;
or other sketches to which you could refer me? We should all be glad to read them. It is not every day one finds such pure delight in literature.

I found your address from Mr. R. W. Giddis of San Diego's -

I am very truly yours

Charles Landers