Introduction

The Pacific Law Journal is proud to present the fifth biennial Review of Selected Nevada Legislation. We have attempted to cover the most significant legislation that impacts and interests the Nevada bar and bench. Your comments and suggestions concerning this publication are welcomed and appreciated.

As in the past, each review begins with a description of the topic area, a listing of sections affected by the bill, the bill number, the chapter number, and the author of the bill. The effective date of all legislation is October 1, 1989, unless otherwise indicated in the heading.

Certain terms are used consistently throughout the Review and are worthy of definition. The term "prior law" refers to the law in effect before the enactment of the 1989 legislation, and which is no longer in effect after the passage of the new legislation. "Existing law" refers to law which was in effect before the passage of the 1989 legislation, and which remains in effect after the passage of the new legislation.

This Review is the result of hard work by many individuals. It could not be completed without the countless hours spent by our student writers as they researched, wrote, and rewrote numerous bills. Many thanks to all of you. In addition, the law review process involves the work of many editors; while all of them deserve much appreciation, I especially wish to thank the Legislation Editors, Chris Frangeš, Janice Kamikawa, Agnes Jacquett, and Lisa Kelso. Their efforts have made the publication process much simpler.

The entire Legislation Department wishes to thank John DeGraff for reviewing our write-ups to help correct substantive mistakes that would otherwise have occurred. In addition, we wish to thank our advisor Professor Jerome J. Curtis, as well as the entire McGeorge faculty and administration for their help, guidance and support. Finally, our sincere appreciation to Nancy Hermanson the Journal secretary for her hard work and support.
