Mr. John Muir,

Dear Sir;

We have read your "Douglas Squirrel" and have not been surprised to find it a desirable paper. We have marked it accepted and will pass it over to our chf. editor, Mr. Drake, for illustration.

Your Lake
sketch has just come to hand and will receive early attention. Condense your Farm Life observations some time (when you have taken the subject to heart) and let us see the result. Mrs Foote is now in the East but her familiarity with California scenery would enable her to make charming pictures out of the rudest sketches.

It is not necessary to repeat that we hold you in high regard. You know that we are

Sincerely yours,

Ed. M.
