My husband is absent just now, were he here he would join me in sending love and sincere regards to yourself & the Gangers, should they still be in San Francisco. May we not hear further from you and know about your plans?
 Yours truly,
 Gertrude F. J. J.

 Mr. John Muir,
 Dear Sir,

I received you-
 today, through the mail a photograph of yourself, and I wish to acknowledge it, and to assure you of the pleasure it gave me and that I am somewhat of Mr. G's gratification in possessing it.

We think and speak often of our pleasant intercourse with yourself and Prof Ganges, and we trust to renew it some time - Please do not forget that the foothills of the Alleghenies offer attractions to the naturalist and the lover of the picturesque and also that you now possess friends there as well - who would welcome you gladly to their home -
