Dear General:

I sent you a line from Austin giving you a number of the good things this hot summer has brought us Yesterday I received a letter from Mrs Kennedy dated June 21st which had been forwarded after long delay. The answer which I have just written I forward to you because I have forgotten a portion of the address. & because she says that ~~that~~ she hoped to go west this month.
Please forward to her.

Our train is on the point of starting & I have but a moment. Which I regret the less as Mrs Kennedy's letter to you & Mrs Bidwell may read will answer for all -

Ever cordially yrs.

John Mason
