P.S. I find that the copy of Sorpe
on Volcanos is still here. Mr. Sargent
is so good as to take it to you.

HERBARIUM OF HARVARD UNIVERSITY, BOTANIC GARDEN, CAMBRIDGE, MASS.

Sept. 12

1878

My Dear Miss

It will be pure luck, I suppose, if
at this season you
are within reach of this letter, by which I desire to introduce my associate and
near friend, Prof.
Sargent, the Director of our Garden and Arboretum, & his companion, Mr. Phillips.
I do wish you
could find them just

00813

and take them down
to Sequoia forests
on King's River,
and the like,

But I fear you
will find them even more hurried than Stoker and I were.

I trust you duly
received the copy of Scrope which Stoker sent out for
you. Always I remain Yours sincerely

Arbony
