Similarly, Chapter 858 adds a penalty equal to and in addition to that provided for the primary offense if these substance abuse laws are violated: (1) at, or within 1000 feet of, a public or private school, a playground, a recreational center for youths, a video arcade, or a public swimming pool; (2) on, or within 1000 feet of, any University of Nevada campus; or (3) within 1000 feet of a school bus stop on school days. Chapter 858 also mandates an additional sentence equal to that of the primary offense when a person commits a felony on a school bus while the bus is in official use.

The additional sentences prescribed by Chapters 857 and 858 run consecutively with the sentence prescribed for the primary offense. Further, Chapters 857 and 858 do not create separate offenses, but merely provide an added penalty for the primary offense.

Crimes; cruelty to animals—sale of impounded animals

NEV. REV. STAT. §§ 561.344, 574.055, 574.200 (amended).
AB 245 (Gaston); 1989 STAT. Ch. 117

Existing law permits a society for the prevention of cruelty to animals (society) to impound mistreated animals. Chapter 117 provides that any tortured, injured or abandoned animal will be impounded within forty-eight hours of being discovered by either a peace officer or an officer of the society. To regain possession, the animal's owner must pay the costs of the impounding and the animal's maintenance. If the owner refuses to pay, or is unable to pay, the State Department of Agriculture will sell the animal. After covering the impoundment and maintenance cost, any proceeds from the sale will be deposited in the livestock inspection fund.

2. See id. § 574.100 (1987) (a person who tortures, overworks, abandons, or starves an animal is guilty of a misdemeanor).
4. Id. (the charges must be approved by the sheriff).

Crimes; depriving another of custody of or visitation with a child

Depriving another of lawful custody of, or visitation rights with a child is a crime under existing law. Under Chapter 727, when a court has not determined custody, it is a crime for one person to willfully attempt to deprive another of custody or visitation with a
