Dear Mrs Carr.

Yesterday I sent you by mail five dollars worth of tree seeds, according to directions. They seemed fresh, & I was assured they were so.
Hope they may grow as well as they can for you, & at least think the beauty of their homes & their fathers.

I have been strongly tempted to make another visit to Southern Cal<sup>a</sup>, but have concluded the season is too far gone.

Your letter lay at John Swetts some time, so the seeds may not reach you in time. Though I suppose Allie will attend to the planting. I am glad to think of Allie as a tiller of the soil Good luck to the boy.

I am now quartered with Mr Upham, Payor's partner, & am well off.
Though the writing mood has not yet appeared.

Remember me to the Congers & Ellie. May you find your farm always a heaven, taking nothing of politics into it when you leave Sacramento.

I saw Mr Moore last Sunday. His is a sad case.
No heaven for him this side the mysterious one built on faith.

Cordially Yrs,

John Muir.
