Feb. 19, 1879.

Dear Mr. Muir:

We are sorry
you are not pleased with the drawing which we printed with the Glacier article. It was cut a little too literally as to the sheep, and was by the artist's mistake, omitted from the "Meadows".
We thought it so rich and delicate in feeling that we could not omit it altogether.
We are sorry if it is not accurate. It has been greatly admired as a piece of drawing sentiment.

We will probably use the paper on forests in June or July or in both. We wish very much that you could see the drawings; still in most cases they are carefully corrected by your own sketches.

Our art-editor, Mr. Drake, will observe your wishes in the matter of the drawings by yourself.

We inclose the copy of the note desired and are,
very sincerely yours,
Eds. M.

A.B. In case you should desire a check for the material not yet printed, before its publication, we shall be glad to forward it. Have you other work in hand?
