Dear Sir:

Your favor of the 27th is at hand & we will attend to your suggestions. We should be glad to use any additions to the "Forests" you may send us. We have showed your letter to Mr Drake & he wishes us to say to you that he thinks you will be perfectly satisfied with the illustrations for your next articles. Some of them have been exactly reproduced & the others have been drawn by Mr. Smith who has been over the ground & has photographs of many of the trees. We regret that some of the illustrations have not been entirely satisfactory.

and we trust that you will like the future cuts better. We enclose the publishers check for $125⁰⁰ which is nearly up to our estimate of the articles. Should they overrun as they probably will, we will send you a check for the balance, on publication. We shall be glad to see the "Bee" article when it is ready

Yours very truly
Editor Scribner
