Mr. Levi Eyring

Dear Sir.

It is in Contemplate to hold a "Sunday School Assembly" in the Yosemite Valley during some of the present year. We expect them to find continued success.

A large no. of visitors are expected from the west. Special low rates of fare having been obtained for an excursion.
Many from the State will also be present.

Several noted lecturers and speakers will be present from the east.

I am instructed by the Com. of arrangements - of which I am one - that if your services can be obtained to deliver two (or more) lectures in the valley upon the "Geological Records of Yosemite. - The time for the first our meeting June 9 at eleven a.m. of Tuesday June 12 at 8 P.M.

Observe with care & curiosity the various points of interest in the Valley.

Will you please, at your earliest convenience correspond with me on the subject. Of course the Com. do not expect to defray your expenses: and will make such compensation (within their power) as we can agree upon between us and you.

At Mr. W. Channing's suggestion & debit Cash Payor W. H. Allen & Co; not knowing your address.

Please let me hear from you at your earliest convenience.

Dear Sir, very truly yours

W. H. Allen.
