Dear Mary

I wish to thank you for your valuable present to me.

But I feel
sorry to have robbed you
of one of your treasures.

Last week each of us, had a letter from Hamilton. Your father is still quite lame - but says his health is good.

I am sorry we did,

4/1/79

for remittance
to New York

Mr. William Wand,
Phillips,

Price Co.

Wisconsin

not send your things with Mr Guild - but will surely take the first opportunity to do so -

There has been an unusual amount of sickness - here this spring - but not many deaths -

We are all in our usual health -

With love to both
I remain affectionately
Mother
