Dear Mrs Carr.

I enclose at last the name of the big Orange book. E. & P. & Co or Greig & Co will import it for Mr Carr at the price here named - for less if intended for the Library.

I thought you would have been to make at least one of your annual business like calls to see me ere this, but I suppose the office & conventions & your farm leave you precious little time. Your days all go by in little heats & bits - while you move so fast you are nearly invisible.

Had a moments talk with the Doctor. Am glad he is looking so much like himself again. The summer is coming. Don't know how it will be spent. Cordially yrs John M. Min.

glad to hear of all success did you hear the Butcher's lecture the other day.
