Gaming; prohibition of paraphernalia used for cheating

NEV. REV. STAT. §§ 465.080, 465.085, 465.110 (amended). AB 731 (Committee on Judiciary); 1989 STAT. Ch. 458

Exiting law prohibits the use of counterfeit chips in gambling games. Chapter 458 prohibits the possession of paraphernalia used to manufacture counterfeit chips or slugs. Possession of two or more manufacturing paraphernalia creates a rebuttable inference that the possessor intended to use them for cheating. In addition, Chapter 458 prohibits any modification of a gaming device which alters its results.
