Fragments

Delainey Willing

Fragments lay scattered around
Waiting for me to finish
What I've already begun.
Poems with incomplete rhymes;
Books with missing chapters.
They sit in my kitchen
Next to the cereal. Maybe move this sentence...

"Finish Me"

They whisper.
...here. It continues the thread of where they are.
They perch on my shower curtain rod
Begging for any hit or nod.
They dress up in my clothes,
Like they're trying to possess me
To finish what I've already begun.
But words don't come easy
And time runs by
So they wait

And wait

And wait

Nagging at the back of my mind.
