[Feb, 1880]

I will probably leave the city today for the Tahoe region with Magee. Spend a week there, then visit the Midwells at Chico on my way back, then deliver my lecture, & pay you another visit, which I trust will result in our knowing each other better.

I was at John Swett's when the spicy apples arrived, which explains my tardiness in acknowledging the handsome & toothsome gift.

The Williams's, Swett's, Wham's, & Payot's, all enquire kindly about the family, & are glad to hear that Mrs. Strutzel is growing strong again.

With warmest thanks for your good advice I am ever
Cordially John Muir.
