Public Entities, Officers, and Employees; disinterment of human remains by coroner

AB 530 (Committee on Health and Welfare); 1989 Stat. Ch. 171

Under existing law, any person wishing to disinter or remove human remains within the state must secure a permit from the local health officer.1 Chapter 171 exempts county coroners from the requirement of obtaining a permit for disinterment or removal of human remains while acting within the scope of their official duties.2

Public Entities, Officers, and Employees; distribution of records of criminal history

AB 7 (Sader); 1989 Stat. Ch. 5

Existing law provides for the distribution of records of criminal history1 to qualified persons or public entities.2 Chapter 5 authorizes

2. See id. § 179A.100 (amended by 1989 Nev. Stat. ch. 5, sec. 1 at 5) (providing for the dissemination of records of criminal history based upon the nature of the record and status of the person or entity seeking the record).
