Public Entities, Officers, and Employees; disinterment of human remains by coroner

NEV. REV. STAT. § 451.045 (amended).

AB 530 (Committee on Health and Welfare); 1989 STAT. Ch. 171

Under existing law, any person wishing to disinter or remove human remains within the state must secure a permit from the local health officer.¹ Chapter 171 exempts county coroners from the requirement of obtaining a permit for disinterment or removal of human remains while acting within the scope of their official duties.²

Public Entities, Officers, and Employees; public employees—catastrophic leave

NEV. REV. STAT. § 284.____ (new).

AB 505 (Williams); 1989 STAT. Ch. 334

Under prior law, state employees could not donate their accrued annual or sick leave time to fellow employees.¹ Chapter 334 authorizes each appointing authority to create an account into which employees may transfer sick or annual leave for their own use, or for use by other employees in the event of a catastrophe.² A "catastrophe" occurs where an employee or a member of the employee's immediate family suffers either a life threatening illness or accident, or one which necessitates an extended recovery period.³ Chapter 334 specifies conditions to transfers into the account,⁴ and requirements for withdrawals from the account.⁵
