Friend Min:- I saw
Cornwall just now
He says we can leave on the steamer of the 30th for Victoria & enter the California there. He makes the boat wait at Victoria until the ~~Puget~~ steamer from here gets up to Victoria. So that suits me exactly. I told him I had arranged to go up with Gou, & he said he would treat us well, but he strongly advised me not to go ~~after~~ after the accident. He has been up on the Puget Sound coast

Much & know^{c23} how wet it is in that region &
what danger there is of fixing rheumatism on me But, maybe now when it comes to the scratch, he wishes he had not offered me a pass, which was ~~an~~ an offer of his own exclusively.
Besides, I have not yet seen the Doctor Douglas so I want to go to see him, but he was out. I will necessarily be guided by what he says, for I am by no means happy
over the way this could founded thing hangs
on to me. But it will go hard with me if I do not now have a jolly trip with you

Get your pass for Victoria & not for Portland. Though I
think we would be all right anyway, to go up
to Astoria. The Oregon Steamer leaves here on the 30th at 10^{pm} for Portland & that leaves 14 hours
of the 30th & 24 hours
of the 31st & at least 6 hours of the 1st before the Cal^a would get down to Astoria that would be 44 hours in all. When I came down the Oregon was only 36 hours but of course going up now
is much slower work

instead of the previous the Victoria route is the same one. ~~There~~
~~with~~ I will see Dr
Douglas to-day or
to-morrow with
best respects to Mrs Shenbrot, the Doctor
Mrs. Smith & yourself
I am
Yours truly
