Dear Mrs Muir:

I wrote you yesterday inviting yourself and Mr Muir to visit us on Saturday, but it is, with true disappointment and regret that I write asking you to post pone it - but not for long time.

Being a miserable woman I find myself unable to leave here this week - Truly there is a fatality over our coming together.

When does Mr Muir go away? Not very soon I hope.

Accept my love, for his sake as I hope soon to love you for your own - With kindest regards to your Father and

Mother, I am yours
Affectionately,
Lizzie B. Williams
