LOWELL BERRY QUILTS COLLEGE OF PACIFIC ATHLETIC BOARD

Lowell Berry, prominent in the field of athletic activities at College of Pacific, has resigned from his position as chairman and member of the Board of Athletic Control which he has held for the past three years.

Although Berry has shown his interest in the other departments of Pacific, his name has most often been linked with athletics and more specifically with football. It was he who stimulated the building of Pacific Memorial Stadium and the interest in big-time football in Stockton.

Barry's decision to resign was made after an informal conference with President Burns and members of the Pacific athletic department concerning policies of football coaching here during the 1953 season. His opinion was that since the Pacific team will be losing several important line and backfield men at the end of this year, the school should hire extra coaching help to whip the team into shape for the '53 season. It was stressed that a good record is especially important in 1953 because of the precarious position of the independent colleges.

Mr. Berry suggested that Larry Siemering, former varsity coach at Pacific, who is now employed as a construction expeditor for Berry's firm be employed to assist the present football coaching staff on a part-time basis. Mr. Siemering has not commented on the suggestion.

President Burns announced that Pacific has eight games on its schedule for '53 and will continue with its present plans and coaching staff. He added that he hoped Berry would continue to serve the college in his position as a member of the board of trustees.

Coach Ernie Jorge, enroute to Washington D.C. for a meeting of the National Collegiate Athletic Association, expressed no opinion on the discussion.

The undated resignation mailed by Mr. Berry to the College of Pacific has not yet been received.

Conservatory Fetes 75 Anniversary With Production of Opera "Martha"

TWO PERFORMANCES WILL BE GIVEN—TOMORROW AND NEXT SATURDAY—BY DOUBLE CAST

The College of the Pacific Conservatory of Music will stage its 75th Anniversary Opera, "Martha" tomorrow evening and the following Saturday evening, at 8:15 in the Conservatory Auditorium.

Dr. Lucas Underwood, director of this production of Fredrich von Flotow's opera, has had the cast and orchestra in rehearsal since September.

The opera centers around the noble Lady Harriet who is bored with her life. When the maid-servants plan to go to the Fair at Richmond, Lady Harriet decides to join them in disguise, hoping to find some new diversion.

Journalism Problem Finds Way To Senate

Publications commissioner Don Tafjen brought a serious problem to the Senate members at their meeting last Monday night by appealing for their assistance in finding an editor for the Pacific Weekly next semester.

Ordinarily each semester's editor is elected from the ranks of the Weekly staff with the approval of the publications commissioner and Senate. This semester there is no one on the staff who, at the present time, seems ready and willing to fill the post. As Tafjen pointed out, "Unless a competent editor is found, the Weekly will revert back to the Bengal Bulletin, a bi-weekly mimeographed sheet. Probably a small paper could be printed with all the empty space filled in, but it would not be a paper in the true sense of the word."

This shortage of an editor has been made a matter of concern not only for this semester, but because it also seems to be establishing a trend away from journalism majors at Pacific. Several meetings of the Weekly staff and advisor have already been called to try to remedy the problem.

Now the Senate has set up a committee to investigate the possible candidates for the editorship next semester and a source of journalism students in the future.

The same committee is also considering ways of getting more publicity for the Senate through the Weekly and radio. Members of the committee are Bob Steres, Jim Williams, Todd Clark and Don Tafjen.

Pan-Hellenic Pledge Formal, Winter Cotillion Set For Tomorrow at Wolf Hotel

"Winter Cotillion," the semi-annual Pan-Hellenic formal dance honoring the new pledges, will be held tomorrow night in the Roof Garden of the Wolf Hotel from 9:30 to 12:30. Music will be furnished by Ted Herman and his band.

Dress for the affair is specified as formal, however men can wear either tuxedos or dark suits.

When the bargaining and hiring begins at the fair, Lady Harriet and her companion Nancy are hired by Lionel and Plunkett and they are taken to Plunkett's farm.

In time Lionel tells of his love for Lady Harriet but she does not return his love. Later she repels him again. When she visits him, still later, he distrusts her for she now tells him of her love. Nancy and Plunkett make plans for their own future.

At Lady Harriet's request, the Fair at Richmond is re-enacted on Plunkett's farm and she hires herself off a second time to Lionel, this time for good.

Both performances will be open to the public with no admission charge.

Many of the members of the cast will be familiar to followers of Pacific musical events. The cast and staff are as follows:

Cast: Lady Harriet, Nadine Stuhlmuller, June Hook; Nancy, Virginia Graham, Rosemarye Mock Smith; Lord Tristram, Malcolm Stone, Don Byrnes (understudy); Lionel, Harry Jordan; Plunkett, Robert Bernard, Benjamin Perl; Sheriff, Robert Littleton; Servant of Lady Harriet, Gerald Robinson; Farmer, John Andres; Farmer's Wife, Heather Hinshaw; First Servant-Maid, Celia Elliott; Second Servant-Maid, Thelma Risenberg; La Vonne Siefken; Third Servant-Maid, Beverly Johnson.

Staff: Musical Assistant: Arthur Corra; Production Assistant, Frances Pini; Accompanist, Arlene Kwok; Orchestra Manager, Joseph Axup; Costumes, Goldstein & Company, San Francisco; Wardrobe Mistress: Barbara Hargis.

Committees preparing for the dance are composed of members of the four Pan Hellenic sororities. Music and the chaperones are by Mu Zeta Rho; bids by Alpha Theta Tau; decorations by Epsilon Lambda Sigma; and refreshments by Tau Kappa Kappa.

Chaperones will be Dr. and Mrs. Howard Runion, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lamond, and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Reynolds.

Group Seeks Answer To Lax Church Attendance

A group of Methodist students on campus under the leadership of Sharon Pruner are working on the plans for a project to interest students in church-related activities.

The main purpose of this group is to discover why the majority of 300 students who checked Methodist as church preference on their registration cards, are not attending church or church events.

The committee is working on such projects for next semester as dances, barbecues, mountain hikes, retreats, singing and preaching teams, and visits to missionary churches. A news letter telling of these various events will be compiled and sent out each month.

While this project is activated and organized by Methodist students, all others who are interested are welcomed and urged to participate.

Letters to the Editor

Dear Sue:

Recently there was a magazine salesman on campus who was attempting to make sales to students between classes in front of some of the buildings. Already we have learned of one forgery he made on campus.

The campus area with a large group of students is a "ready made" sales spot for salesmen of various concerns. Some of them are reliable and some are like the one in the incident mentioned above.

In order to protect students from purchasing poor merchandise and bogus orders, could we ask the Weekly's cooperation in encouraging student body members to check each salesman who approaches them to see if they carry a permit to sell on campus, which should be signed by Mr. Blair, Dean Betz or me.

Sincerely,
HARRIET E. MONROE
Dean of Women

Upon payment, the receipt given you by the business office should be retained until January 26 at which time a membership card can be obtained at the PSA office.

Membership for the spring semester entitles the student to two theatre productions, athletic events, a reduced rate on the Naranjado, all PSA dances including the Mardi Gras.

The fee supports the above events and assists KCVN, the campus radio station, the Anderson Y, the Associated Women Students, the C.O.P. Band, debate team, Naranjado, and the Pacific Weekly.

O'Bryon Child Dies, Rites Held Wednesday

Funeral services were held Wednesday afternoon for James H. O'Bryon, 16-month-old son of Dr. and Mrs. Leonard O'Bryon. The little boy died during the night Tuesday while undergoing an operation to remove some food which lodged in his esophagus.

Dr. O'Bryon, professor of languages in COP and Stockton College, accompanied the body to Lawrence, Kansas, for committal in the family plot.

Dear Editor:

The students at COP are deserving of a great big pat on the back from some one for the wonderful way in which they all joined together for one of the most genuine and enjoyable expressions of the deepest spirit that binds them into a unity.

I am speaking of the Christmas program and tree lighting celebration. Looking at it from the inside, as I had the good fortune of doing, as councillor to many of the committees, I want to say that I was greatly heartened by the cooperative spirit I found among students from all quarters of the campus. There were so many people working on it that it is hard to make any special references to those who did outstanding work, but may I take this means of saying to the student body as a whole, Hurrah! for a job well done.

Sincerely,
AL PAINTER

COP Delegates Enjoy Asilomar

By CORALITA CARLSON

How can one fabulous week be put into a newspaper story? This is the question asked by members of the YMCA and YWCA of College of Pacific who attended a Y conference at Asilomar during Christmas vacation.

The conference, which lasted from December 28 to January 3, provided an atmosphere of fun, fellowship and serious thought for students from California, Nevada, Arizona and Hawaii. An emphasis was placed on finding an answer to personal and universal problems through discussion with leaders and other students.

Among the outstanding leaders at the conference were Howard Thurman, pastor of Friendship Church in San Francisco, who was the main speaker; Arthur Casady of the First Congregational Church of Oakland, who was the chapel speaker; and Frank Munk of Portland, Oregon, moderator of the conference.

Each person attending the conference was given an opportunity to join one of the seminars which discussed such pertinent subjects as race prejudice, courtship and marriage, ways to peace, and maintaining your personal faith in spite of the world conflict.

In addition to the seminars, committee meetings and workshops were held in the afternoon to discuss the actual problems in maintaining an active Y club. Groups concerned themselves with recreation, finance, worship, camps and program material.

Recreation for the afternoon and evening was planned under the direction of Bob Osgood, well-known in Southern California as a leader in the square dance movement. Outdoor games, folkdancing and trips to nearby points of interest were on the schedule in the afternoon. Following the evening's program a party was held ending with a sing around the big fireplace. In addition to the New Year's dance, there was a barn dance, carnival, kiddie party and a beach party.

Pacific Theatre Will Do Harvey

"Harvey" a play which was very popular on Broadway and also was a success in its movie version, has been chosen as the next play for the Pacific Theatre.

Ray Fry, who has distinguished himself in character parts in previous theatre productions this year, has been given the lead as Elwood P. Dowd, the man who is adopted by a "pookah."

Others in the cast are Barbara Baglini, Dorothy Blais, Marshall Breeden, Dorothy Fischer, Virginia Graham, Delores Joy, Gene McCabe, James Ritchey, Ted Smalley and Helen Wolber.

DeMarcus Brown, director of the theatre, has announced the dates to be February 12, 13, 14, 19, 20 and 21.

ARE YOU TOUGH ENOUGH FOR THIS JOB?

If you can make the grade, the U. S. Air Force will award you a commission, your wings and pay you over $5,000 a year!

CAN YOU "take it" 6 days a week? For 52 weeks? Can you meet the high standards required to be an Aviation Cadet? If you can—then here's a man-size opportunity! An opportunity to serve your country and build a personal career that will fit you for responsible positions both in military and commercial aviation.

It won't be easy! Training discipline for Aviation Cadets is rigid. You'll work hard, study hard, play hard—especially for the first few weeks. But when it's over, you'll be a pro—with a career ahead of you that will take you as far as you want to go. You graduate as a 2nd Lieutenant in the Air Force, with pay of $5,300.00 a year. And this is only the beginning—your opportunities for advancement are unlimited.

ARE YOU ELIGIBLE?

To qualify as an Aviation Cadet, you must have completed at least two years of college. This is a minimum requirement—it's best if you stay in school and graduate. In addition, you must be between 19 and 26½ years, unmarried, and in good physical condition.

YOU CAN CHOOSE BETWEEN PILOT OR AIRCRAFT OBSERVER

If you choose to be an Aircraft Observer, your training will be in Navigation, Bombardment, Radar Operation or Aircraft Performance Engineering.

New Aviation Cadet Training Classes Begin Every Few Weeks!

HERE'S WHAT TO DO:

1. Take a transcript of your college credits and a copy of your birth certificate to your nearest Air Force Base or Recruiting Station. Fill out the application they give you.
2. If application is accepted, the Air Force will arrange for you to take a physical examination.
3. Next, you will be given a written and manual aptitude test.
4. If you pass your physical and other tests, you will be scheduled for an Aviation Cadet Training Class. The Selective Service Act allows you a four-month deferment while waiting class assignment.

BENGALS IN FIRST LEAGUE GAME Hoopmen Much Improved

By GEO. MOSCONE

The Pacific Cagers hope to start on their winning ways tonight as they engage the Santa Clara Broncos in Pacific Pavilion. Tonight's encounter will be the first in the newly formed California Basketball Association for the Tigers with Santa Clara breaking the ice last Tuesday against the U.S.F. Dons.

BRONCOS BIG, FAST

In the Broncos the Bengals face the Pacific Coast's favorites as the member-at-large entry in the NCAA tournament.

Coach Bob Feerick's charges employ an attack with the emphasis on finesse backed up by height, speed, and experience.

On the other hand Van Sweet has had difficulty coordinating his offense, while the will to win seems to be here the breaks aren't.

However, the Christmas layoff might have been just what the Tiger's needed to get on the winning side of the ledger.

BRIGHT SPOTS

Despite Pacific's slow start there still remains two bright spots for the fans and these are the outstanding shooting and floor leadership of Gene Sosnick and the brilliance of "Easy Ed" Kahn.

Pacific fans will have an added attraction tonight as Dick Garibaldi returns to the local courts under the spangles of Santa Clara. Dick was the All-American high school griddy from Stockton High.

See you there, 8:15 P.M.

PACIFIC WINS SUN BOWL McCORMICK, OTTOSON, LIEBSCHER LEAD WAY

By BUD WATKINS

Before 14,000 fans who crowded their way into Texas Western Stadium, the Tigers stomped all over the once-beaten club of Mississippi Southern 26-7, in the Sun Bowl.

to Alabama 20-6 in their opener.

PRAISES TEAM

Coach Ernie Jorge attributed the win to "one of the finest efforts, both offensively and defensively that I've seen at Pacific."

The efforts of the Bengal defensive troops speaks for them. The vaunted Southerners had an attack from the straight T that averaged over 400 yards per game. They were held to 215 yards by the Pacifics — The Tigers ground out 16 first downs to the Southerners' 7.

TOM GETS THREE

Tommy McCormick scored three touchdowns. Roy Ottoson passed with deadly accuracy to Ken Buck, Harland Berndt, and Art Liebscher came through with some fine clutch running.

C.B.A. Under Way Santa Clara & USF Tops

Now, for the first time since the College of Pacific withdrew from the CCAA in 1948, the Pacific basketballers will have something more than a won-lost record to fight for. With Pacific in the new league are San Jose State, U. of San Francisco, Santa Clara U. and St. Mary's.

SANTA CLARA BIG

And now for a brief report on each member of the new circuit, and their respective chances in the coming campaign. Santa Clara has been installed in the favorite role for this season. They are paced by tall Herb Schoenstien and Ken Sears, present a tall, fast, and smooth working combination.

USF CLEVER

The Dons have come up with one of their usually potent squads. Sporting such capable men as K. C. Jones, Jerry Mullen, and led by guard Phil Vukicevich, the Dons figure to have plenty to say about who wears that crown.

FAST GAELS

In the 'spoiler' role we have St. Mary's. The Gaels, young and green, have come along faster than expected, and could be a real threat to top-seeded Santa Clara and USF. Bill Bagley, Bill Bandemier, and George McLaughlin are the key men in the St. Mary's attack.

IMPROVED SPARTANS

Figured to be much weaker than usual at the start of this season, the San Jose Spartans have shown signs of coming to life.

TOUGH LUCK TIGERS

And for COP, the hard luck Tigers are probably the smallest team on the coast, also the most less practiced, due to the gridders on the team. The black clad cats are rapidly improving and soon should be in the thick of the league battle. With little Gene Sosnick and his mates Buzz Kahn, Ron Leineke, Jerry Streeter, Ken Buck, the Tigers are capable. Starting forward Harland Bernt is missed badly as he injured a knee in the Sun Bowl.

CAGERS NOSED OUT Sosnick High With 14

By NORM HARRIS

College of Pacific's Tigers tasted defeat as, with only one day's practice after the Christmas Holidays, they bowed to a good Sacramento State team Tuesday night at the Pacific Pavilion by the score of 49-46.

ROUGH CONTEST

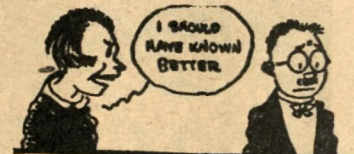

The game was a roughly played contest with over 40 fouls being handed out to both teams. The teams spent much of their time at the free throw line and this was where the game was won as the Tigers actually outbucketed the staters as they hit 15 buckets to the Staters 14 buckets. The Tigers could only collect for 16 of their free throw attempts as the Sacramentans connected for 21 of theirs.

GOOD DEFENSE

The Tigers broke up innumerable attempts at the COP basket as the ball hawking tactics of Jerry Streeter and Buzz Kahn disrupted the Staters ball control attack.

Sosnick was high for the game and the Tigers with 14 points; Kahn, Leineke, and Streeter followed with 8, 7, and 7 points respectively. Larson was high for the Staters with 12 points.
