Estate of $375,000, Willed To Pacific By Silver Heiress, Is Contested

The $375,000 silver mining fortune of the late Mrs. Ophir Ora Schroeder, which was to be divided between College of the Pacific and George Pepperdine College of Los Angeles, has been contested by relatives, assuring much court action before COP will benefit from half the estate.

This situation developed when three surviving relatives of the silver heiress filed a second contest of the will January 9 in a Los Angeles Superior Court. January 21 is the date set for the hearing.

Mrs. Schroeder, who died in the Hollywood Presbyterian Hospital last November, inherited the Nevada silver fortune from her father, John Bicanz, silver mining pioneer and founder of Silver City, Nevada. He named his daughter for his mine, the Ophir Ore.

The relatives charged Dr. Hugh M. Tiner, president of Pepperdine College and one of the guardians appointed to Mrs. Schroeder, with influencing her in the execution of her will.

Mrs. Schroeder at one time, had some business interests in Stockton and was also a student on the old San Jose campus before the turn of the century.

According to the terms of the will, money from the estate is to be used for scholarships for a ten-year period. After that, the trustees of COP may use the money as they see fit.

COP Debate Team Wins And Places At Meet

In their first tournament of the year, College of the Pacific debaters won a first and a second place at the Southern California Speech Tournament in Long Beach.

In competition with thirty colleges from California and Nevada Sheldon Nicolayson of Ripon and Jim Lewis of Oildale teamed for COP to defeat men's debate teams from California, Redlands and Occidental before losing out in the final round to San Diego State College.

Patricia Drake of Tracy brought home the only first place award for Pacific when she took top honors in extemporaneous speaking for women. When the contest closed, COP had accumulated enough points to place 5th in the sweepstakes.

Other COP competitors in the tournament were Bob Heitman and Leon McGarrah of Stockton, Cornelius Sullivan of Lodi, Pete Schneider of Orland, Merl Spencer of San Francisco, Dorothea Anderson of Petaluma and Betty Jacinto of Alvarado.

Edward S. Betz, COP dean of men, is debate coach.

Forum Arts Cuts Group III Schedule

All students enrolled in Forum Arts are asked to note the following change which has been made in the offerings of group III, Stage-Lecture Series.

Only three instead of four functions in group III will be required because of the limited number of offerings in this area. The total number of events needed to receive credit in Forum Arts will remain the same. i.e., 20 for a "B" grade, 25 for an "A" grade.

PSA Welcome Dance To Begin Semester Right

The PSA invites all COP students, new and old, to the semi-annual Welcome dance which will be held Tuesday night, January 27, at 8 p.m. in the gym.

A climax to the spring semester orientation period, the dance is planned as a greeting to new Pacificites, but students now in attendance, weary and worn from finals, are invited to come and get re-acquainted.

Jim Taylor, new member of Alpha Kappa Phi and recent Beau of Mu Zeta Rho, makes a typical student reaction as he is reminded that next week is Final Week. Cheering him are Jeane Hardie (peering around the corner), Bob Steres and Jean Hinkle (seated).

Dr. Hunt Looks Over Past Decisions, Says: 'I'd Do It Again'

By YVONNE YEARIAN

Rockwell D. Hunt, Director of the California History Foundation at College of the Pacific, says "I'd do it again" regarding his decisions throughout his life in an article which appears in the January issue of the CTA Journal.

In his article, Dr. Hunt states, "It is gratifying to me to be able to enjoy the feeling that if, in imagination, I were today confronted with each of several major questions that actually did confront me in earlier days, and if I were asked what I would do about it after the years of life experience — in such an imaginary situation I can honestly say, 'I'd do it again.'"

Napa College, which later merged with the College of the Pacific, was Dr. Hunt's choice for his undergraduate work. For advance graduate study he, who had never been away from his native California, chose John Hopkins University in Baltimore, Maryland. There he had many distinguished teachers including Herbert Adams, James Schouler, George Emmott, John Bates Clark, Woodrow Wilson, Henry C. Adams, Sidney Sherwood, John M. Vincent, and Westel M. Willoughby. At this University Rockwell D. Hunt discovered his deep interest in California's history.

"At the age of seventy-seven still in the enjoyment of excellent health and reasonable vigor, I retired from active work, becoming Dean Emeritus of the Graduate School, University of Southern California, the University which I had actively served (Continued on Page 3)

Student Affairs Gives Problems Consideration

By CHRIS DE SARRO

Recalling the concerns and activities of the Student Affairs Committee it is seen that this sub-committee of the Senate is one of the PSA organizations which is very sensitive to the feelings of the campus.

One of the main purposes is to realize and evaluate student gripes, criticisms and opinions. It is for this reason that the Association Constitution specifies that the Student Affairs Committee be chosen with the intention of assembling a cross-section of campus activities.

Through the Beef Box, the Committee members' alertness, and Senate request, the following have been given consideration: the school's need for a new U. S. Flag, telephone facilities of the women's dorms, drinking at College functions, PSA Constitution, Student PSA dances, and muddy sidewalks during stormy weather.

The main standing responsibilities of the committee are the conduction of elections and the issuing of duplicates for lost PSA cards.

In order that all who are interested may participate in Student Government, the meetings of Student Affairs are open. They are scheduled on alternate Monday evenings at 7:30 p.m. in the Senate Room.

COP Alums In Many Fields

The COP Alumni office keeps posted on former students and their ventures into professional fields.

Harry M. Uhlenberg, 1950, of Redwood City is announcer for Station KECC in Contra Costa County. While attending COP Harry majored in radio broadcasting and was associated with Rhizomia.

Rex Mull, 1950, and Luther Avery, were recently elected officers of the Stanford Law Review at Stanford University. Rex is now serving as the article and book review editor and Luther as managing editor.

Leslie Johnson, 1951, is employed by the California Youth Authority at the Preston School of Industry, teaching music. He also has been teaching music at the Ione High School.

Barron Maynard, Jr., 1952, is at the University of Innsbruck in Austria, where he will study for his doctorate of philosophy, and also study French and German. He already has received his bachelor of arts degree from COP.

James Jewel, 1951, has been appointed a teaching fellowship in the theatre department of Smith College, Northampton, Mass. Jewel was prominent in technical work at Pacific Theatre and also worked with the California Centennials Commission historical pageant productions. He was lighting designer at Green Mansions, Warrensburg, N.Y., before receiving his present appointment.

ARE YOU TOUGH ENOUGH FOR THIS JOB?

If you can make the grade, the U. S. Air Force will award you a commission, your wings and pay you over $5,000 a year!

CAN YOU "take it" 6 days a week? For 52 weeks? Can you meet the high standards required to be an Aviation Cadet? If you can—then here's a man-size opportunity! An opportunity to serve your country and build a personal career that will fit you for responsible positions both in military and commercial aviation.

It won't be easy! Training discipline for Aviation Cadets is rigid. You'll work hard, study hard, play hard—especially for the first few weeks. But when it's over, you'll be a pro—with a career ahead of you that will take you as far as you want to go. You graduate as a 2nd Lieutenant in the Air Force, with pay of $5,300.00 a year. And this is only the beginning—your opportunities for advancement are unlimited.

ARE YOU ELIGIBLE?

To qualify as an Aviation Cadet, you must have completed at least two years of college. This is a minimum requirement—it's best if you stay in school and graduate. In addition, you must be between 19 and 26½ years, unmarried, and in good physical condition.

YOU CAN CHOOSE BETWEEN PILOT OR AIRCRAFT OBSERVER

If you choose to be an Aircraft Observer, your training will be in Navigation, Bombardment, Radar Operation or Aircraft Performance Engineering.

New Aviation Cadet Training Classes Begin Every Few Weeks!

HERE'S WHAT TO DO:

1. Take a transcript of your college credits and a copy of your birth certificate to your nearest Air Force Base or Recruiting Station. Fill out the application they give you.
2. If application is accepted, the Air Force will arrange for you to take a physical examination.
3. Next, you will be given a written and manual aptitude test.
4. If you pass your physical and other tests, you will be scheduled for an Aviation Cadet Training Class. The Selective Service Act allows you a four-month deferment while waiting class assignment.

Dining Hall Plans Modernizing

By SHIRLEY DYKE

Stoutly denying the rumor began by students on campus that there is a shortage of food in the dining hall this semester, Miss Handy, head dietician, says that certain cuts have been necessary, however, in order to stay within the given board rate charged students by the college. The dining hall is forced to limit students to one regulated portion of meat, salad, desert, and milk. The board rate for each student runs less than $2.00 a day, and the average cost of each meal is 10 cents more than allowed.

Miss Handy stressed the point that a student who feels that he needs more than he is given of a regulated item may purchase it. The training table for athletes pays extra for the extra amount of milk which it consumes.

Gradual changes in the dining hall are taking place this semester. Several new items of equipment have been installed in order to make the kitchen more modern and the service more efficient. A new baking unit has been added this semester. The bakery is now offering cafeteria eaters home-made bread, rolls, cakes, and pies. More variety in food is on the agenda when additional cooking space can be arranged.

More student help is being used in the cafeteria this semester. There are approximately twenty-five employees. A new addition this semester is the President's Dining Room. This room may be used by any student group for a meal meeting, and has a capacity of approximately twenty-five. Any group may use this room if they contact Miss Handy to make a reservation.

It is hoped that in the near future the military aluminum trays, which have been used by COP students for years, will be replaced by dishes. The main thing that is holding the removal of the trays is the lack of space that is needed to store the dishes.

This semester quite a few paper containers have been used in order to keep the foods separated.

All in all the dining hall is striving to make cafeteria eating better and more inviting. Miss Handy feels that eating in the dining hall is definitely part of the student's social life and that the dining hall should be run for the enjoyment of the students.

Irene Otis Leads Knolens Activities

A 10:30 a.m. brunch at Miss Harriett Monroe's home last Saturday morning marked the final fall semester meeting for the Knolens, senior women's honorary.

Readying itself for its spring semester projects and activities, the group brought its scrap book up to date and held a short business meeting to select its new officers.

The spring semester officers are Irene Marks Otis, president; Janice Comstock, vice-president; Helen Flaharty, secretary-treasurer; and Jeanne Hardie, historian.

OF MIKES AND MEN

By JEANNE HARDIE

Winding up the semester, the campus radio station is programming next week's log around the big student problem . . . final week. A glance at the log gives the info that "music to study by" is yours for the dialing during that hectic time.

Since this is the close of the semester, a glance at some of the outstanding campus programs is in order. Nadine Reasoner brought you "Pacific Previews" with a look into all the scheduled campus events. Jim Spight presented student problems before the deans on "Meet the Dean". Students from foreign countries were guests on Jeanne Hardie's show "International Conversation." Jan Terbeck and Roz Sloss had the show for the girls with Women's Corner."

And of course there were the disc jockey shows from 10 to 11 every night. Keith Baker's "Music of the Ages;" "Dream Awhile" with Bob Steres; Dick Lafferty with "Disc'n with Dick"; Jim Lehman's "Lehman's Labels," and "The Record Shop" of John Orton.

Special Events under the direction of Jerry Bogle recorded conservatory recitals and campus doings. Perhaps most interesting of these special event broadcasts was the coverage of the "Christmas Caroling procession" which required 4 remote originating points and the use of practically all of remote broadcasting equipment, plus a crew of five and the use of two cars, with which to dash equipment and crew members to the different broadcasting locations.

This was considered one of the high points in team work and skillful co-ordination this year at Radio Pacific. Sport events covered all football and basketball home games with Dave Gilbert and Jim Lehman governing procedures.

Plans for next semester broadcast operations were discussed at the Radio Fraternity meeting Sunday night at Mu Zeta Rho. If there are any types of programs you wish to hear on the station . . . voice an opinion. This is your station, and we aim to please you.

TIGERS GAMBLE IN RENO

BENGALS LOOK FOR WIN Cagers Journey To Nevada U.

College of Pacific's Tigers again take to the road for a tough two-game series against the hot and cold University of Nevada Wolfpack. The games will be played at Reno, Nevada, tonight and tomorrow night in the Wolfpack's gym. The Tigers will be looking for win number two on their tough 23-game schedule and it is hoped that the Wolfpack will provide the much sought after victories.

MATCHED EVEN

The Wolfpack will field a starting team that will not give the Nevadans a decided height advantage as all the teams playing Pacific have had. The tallest starting man will be center Al

Depaoli who measures 6'3". Depaoli has a good hook shot and hustles well on the boards. In all probability the biggest threat to Pacific's cagers will be Mert Baxter, 6' 1" forward. Baxter is well remembered here at Pacific after proving to be a thorn in Pacific's side in last year's game. Baxter is especially good on the fake and drive-in and also above par on his set shots. Baxter is the leading scorer for the Nevadans this year as he leads the Jake Lawlor coached club. The other starting forward for the Wolfpack will be Matt Vidovich, 6' 1", whose biggest asset is a good outside shot. The front lines of the Tigers and the Wolfpack will both be close with 6' 1" Buzz Kahn, 6' 2" Don Goldstein, and 6' 4" Ken Buck. The Tigers will be evenly matched for the first time this season.

At the guards will be Pacific's outstanding hustler, Jerry Street, and diminutive Gene Sosnick, one of the finest shots on the coast.

REVENGE

The Tigers have been having their troubles shooting over much taller teams than their own, but with the height of the two teams practically the same and with the Tigers slowly rounding into form this writer predicts a clean sweep of the bill in Nevada, even though the Wolfpack would like nothing better than to beat Pacific after last year's game when the Tigers handed the Wolfpack two straight losses to end their undefeated season.

Pacific Sports

The Tigers Gene Wellman, Dale Clipper and Don Goldstein jump for a rebound in last week's game against Santa Clara. In the background is the Broncos' Don Benedetti.

BRONCOS TAME TIGERS 69-40

Coach Van Sweet's undermanned and undersized Tigers made their debut in the newly formed

California Basketball Association last Friday night by taking a 69 to 40 thumping at the hands of Santa Clara, before an almost packed pavillion here. The Broncos had things pretty much their own way right from the start as 6' 7" Ken Sears and 6' Herb Schoenstein dominated both backboards. The Skyscraping Broncos raced to a 37-19 halftime margin on the tips of the two aforementioned gentlemen plus the set shooting of Jim Yoong, a "mere" 6' 3". The short Tigers could only get one shot at the bucket and if they missed, Santa Clara had the casaba and were off and running. The two bright spots for the Bengals were pint-sized Gene Sosnick and Buzz Kahn. "Gino" was high point man for both teams as he meshed 20 points, 14 of them coming in the second half. SKI TEAM HAVE BUSY SEASON ON TAP

With four big college meets already on their schedule the College of Pacific ski team is looking forward to an exciting, race-filled season. Official workouts started two weeks ago and plans are being made to have official team tryouts sometime in January.

Bob Spiekerman, topnotch Bengal slatman, tested the early snows and reports conditions fine in the high Sierras. As yet no other team members have done any skiing this season.

BUSY MONTH

February promises to be a busy month for the Tiger skiers as three collegiate meets have already been scheduled for that month. Modesto Junior College is sponsoring a meet the 14th and 15th at Dodge Ridge.

The following weekend the team travels to Nevada for the famous University of Nevada Winter Carnival where schools from all over the West compete, and the week after the Tressider Memorial at Yosemite brings an interesting and thrill-packed month to a close.

In March the annual Vanderbilt Memorial meet sponsored by the University of California finishes out the collegiate racing season.

These meets will all be four-event competition, which means downhill, slalom, cross-country and jumping will be held. College meets are based on team competition so most of the team members will enter each event.

TWO MORE BIG ONES

Two other big races which the COP racers are eagerly awaiting are the Downhill and Slalom Championships for Class "C" and "B" racers. Dodge Ridge will host the "C" racers in their Championship competition and the Class "B" racers will fight it out at Yosemite. These meets will be held in March.

With returning veterans Elton Murphy, Bob Spiekerman, and Mike Franceschini the team has experience which is vital to the racing game. John Witter, Jim Baun, and Bill Ghormley add new blood which should provide keen competition for top berths. With "Good luck and good wax" a few trophies may be brought back to Stockton this winter.

COP 13 vs. California 34

A great personal duel between Pacific's Tom McCormick and California's John Olszewski developed in this one, and it ended in just about a standoff. The Tigers got off to an early lead, 6-0, but the Bears went ahead 14-6 just before the half. COP closed it to 14-13 early in the third quarter but Cal scored twice in the third period and once in the fourth. When the game ended the Tigers had driven to the Bear four but the clock ran out.

COP 34 vs. Utah State 7

After Hank Welch scored on a 77-yard end run on Pacific's first scrimmage play, this one settled into a real struggle until the Tigers broke it open with a three TD fourth quarter. Another highlight was Al Dattola's 86-yard kickoff return for a score in the final period.

COP 42 vs. Texas Tech 21

A close ball game for three quarters, this replay of the 1952 Sun Bowl game saw the Tigers break it open late in the going for the second week in a row. After Tech went ahead, 21-14, just after the half, COP took to the air with Roy Ottoson throwing three TD passes and Jerry Streeter one.

COP 21 vs. San Jose State 26

A gilt edged downybrook, this one was won by the Spartans on a 38 yard run by halfback Roy Hiram with 24 seconds to play. Probably the most thrilling contest of the 24 game series between these two traditional rivals, San Jose got off to an early 13-0 lead. COP went ahead, 14-13, in the second quarter only to have the Spartans regain the top spot, 20-14, just before the half. The Tigers took a 21-20 bulge with 4½ minutes to play but couldn't hold it. McCormick was the game's star, scoring all three Tiger TD's, rushing for 147 yards and playing a bangup defensive game.

COP 7 vs. San Diego Navy 25

The Tigers took on the professional leashed Sailors with seven first stringers riding the bench due to injuries. Playing inspired defensive ball, COP held the Navy scoreless for a half but with the platoon system junked due to the injuries, the Tigers tired in the second half. Pacific drove the length of the field late in the game to score on a Roy Ottoson to Ken Buck pass with 15 seconds to play to avert a shut out.

COP 14 vs. Oregon U. 6

Once again Tom McCormick was the difference in the Tigers' favor as he tallied once on a 12 yard Ottoson pass and another time on a 15 yard run. Both scores came because of his marvelous faking ability. COP's defense completely bewildered Oregon's potent passing attack.

COP 27 vs. Santa Clara 0

Jerry Streeter tossed three TD passes, two to Ken Buck and one to Phil Flock, as the Tigers pulled up late in this one to win going away. This game marked the first time Santa Clara had been whitewashed by the Tigers.

COP 50 vs. Fresno State 0

The Tiger defense ran its consecutive unscored upon string to 10 quarters as COP completely outclassed the previously unbeaten Bulldogs. McCormick set a new one-game rushing record of 177 yards, playing only in the first half, and in a driving rainstorm.

COP 27 vs. Marquette U. 27

Alert defensive play set up three first half touchdowns as the Tigers got off to a 27-7 intermission lead. But Marquette came back fired up with two in the third quarter and one in the fourth to earn a tie as the COP defense floundered. McCormick sat out the entire second half with a chest injury, hurting Pacific's offense.

COP 49 vs. U. of Hawaii 13

McCormick tallied three TD's to set new one-year COP scoring record of 16, and Phil Flock gained 157 yards as the Tigers led 35-0 at half and coasted in, letting the squad alternate in their various positions.

IN ONE EAR

By GEORGE FOWLER

Verdi; Il Trovatore. Milanov(s), Warren (b), Barbieri (m), Bjoerling (t), Cellini conducting the RCA-Victor Orchestra. RCA-Victor LM-6008. Here is a real prize. Milanov sings beautifully and displays a brilliant soprano, but she is overshadowed by Fedora Barbieri, who gives her role depth and compassion. The best performance, however, is that of Leonard Warren, excellent from start to finish. Bjoerling sings splendidly and doesn't spare the high notes, but he gives the role about as much emotion as Joe Bolt, the Iron Fireman. Grade A stuff.

Verdi; Aida. Tebaldi (s), Mario Del Monaco (t), Stignani (m), Erede and the St. Cecilia Symphony. London LLA-13. I am sure Verdi had singers like Del Monaco in mind when he concluded this opera by sealing the tenor up in a tomb. However I doubt whether such a fate would effectively silence Del Monaco's beltings. Nuff said. Paradoxically enough, Renata Tebaldi is as superb as the former is bad. Her wonderful singing is effortless and her interpretation of the role is unsurpassable. Signani is also excellent and proves that age hasn't begun to fray her wonderful vocal cords. The tempo is highly intelligent and shows no signs of lagging. This is the best available edition of Aida.

Fioravanti; Le Cantatrici Villane. Mario Rossi and the Scarlatti Society Orchestra. Soloists: Noni, Orell, Cadoni, and Lazzari. Cetra-Soria 50102. Here is an opera-buffa I can recommend without reservations. It is very short and very delightful. The music sparkles and there is an abundance of enticing melodies. The soloists, unknown to me, sing expertly and more important, with appealing directness and generous ability. The performance is brisk and pleasing. Hear This.

Survey Of Scholars And Colleges Published In Current Mademoiselle

By YVONNE YEARIAN

How does anyone know which of the accredited four-year institutions of higher education in the U. S. are the scholars' colleges?

MADEMOISELLE (in its January issue) is the first publication of any kind to cull the findings of a survey over this area, especially as they relate to the education of women.

The MADEMOISELLE report Where Do the Top Students Go? is incorporated in a sixteen-page portfolio in its current issue. Whether to Go, Where to Go. The complete study (due for publication this spring) is The Younger American Scholar: His Collegiate Origins by Robert H. Knapp and Joseph H. Greenbaum, both of Wesleyan University.

As reported in MADEMOISELLE, the top six women's colleges in the production of scholars are Bryn Mawr, Barnard, Radcliffe, Vassar, MacMurray College for Women, and Mount Holyoke.

"Six co-ed colleges," MADEMOISELLE says, "have a special distinction and point to a certain kind of atmosphere that's favorable to learning. They're among the twenty colleges that lead in the production of scientists, the twenty that lead in the production of social scientists, and twenty that lead in the humanities."

"The six co-ed colleges are Swarthmore, Reed, University of Chicago, Oberlin, Carleton, and Antioch. If you haven't heard of some of them it may be because at these colleges football is a game to be played for the fun of it. Antioch and Chicago have no teams; Reed's team has lost at least as many games as any other in the country; Carleton's has been captained in recent years by students who obviously don't give all their time to the game — two Phi Beta Kappas and one Rhodes Scholarship winner."

"None of these colleges has national sororities. All but one are small liberal arts colleges, all are privately controlled and non-denominational, though three were founded by church groups. All choose students not only for scholastic aptitude and what they can learn from this college, but also for what they can teach each other — All are interracial and nonsegregated."

In the production of women scholars the fifty-three women's colleges as a group averaged 5.6 per thousand graduates — a good length ahead of all the co-ed liberal arts colleges and universities. Perhaps it is that women's colleges are more selective and more effective. Whatever the reasons, seventeen of the sizable women's colleges sent women into intellectual exploration at the rate of five or more to a thousand graduates.

And, as MADEMOISELLE points out, "a college that turns out five scholars is certain to turn out a hundred other graduates convinced of their eternal obligation to ask questions and find out."

MR. AND MRS. MURDERER!

Radio Free Europe is telling all of Romania about this bloodthirsty couple and their secret torture chamber!

UNTIL 10 A.M., December 27th, they were simply Mr. and Mrs. Margineanu, distinguished citizens of Blaj, respected and admired by the entire community. And then—

"This is Radio Free Europe. People of Romania, listen to this information we have received from the underground at Blaj. Among the foremost aides of the Chief of the Security Police are a young married couple named Margineanu. Together with other members of the governmental gang, they patronize blood orgies nightly. Those freedom-loving Romanians not in sympathy with the Communist regime are dragged before them and beaten to death. While the torture goes on, the wine bottle is passed around—and there is much toasting and singing.

The names of other regular participants are as follows..."

The crimes against the captive nation are revealed each day by Radio Free Europe. Traitors, informers and "quislings" are named. Lives of anti-communist patriots are saved. Truth is piercing the Iron Curtain and spreading fear and confusion among Communist overlords and their collaborators.

Support the Crusade For Freedom!

Slowly but surely the true face of Communism is being exposed and the cold war is being won. But Radio Free Europe urgently needs more help from its sponsor—You!

The Crusade for Freedom needs at least

$4,000,000 this year to support and expand the operations of Radio Free Europe and Radio Free Asia.

This Crusade cannot succeed without your help. Radio Free Europe and Radio Free Asia need your contributions to help fight red lies with truth and to win the cold war.

Get behind this truth campaign now! Help bring to millions the promise of future freedom. Send your contribution to Crusade for Freedom, c/o your local Postmaster.

Joan Oje, Former Student, Asks Friends To Write Her In Germany

By GWENDOLEN ARP

The Weekly has received word from Joan Oje, former COP student who has left the United States to visit her father, Major Lyle Oje, charge of recreation in occupation, U. S. Army, Germany.

An undergraduate P. E. major and a member of Alpha Theta Tau, Joan left Bishop, California, her hown town, last fall and traveled to New York City by way of Chicago. Her one word description of New York is "madhouse." She says that she will take Stockton any day.

Joan did more in four days than most people do in a lifetime. She was a contestant on "Break the Bank," took a ride through Central Park in a hansom cab, saw all the famous buildings and stores, toured Greenwich Village, and saw two Broadway plays.

After her whirlwind stop in New York, Joan boarded the S.S. Washington and was on her way to Germany. Half way across the Atlantic, Joan met Jeanne Lane, 1951 Homecoming Sweetheart, and member of Epsilon Lambda Sigma. From that time on, Joan and Jeanne were traveling companions. They arrived in England and toured Southhampton, Bremen, and a cathedral at Westchester. At Frankfurt, Germany, the two parted for their separate destinations, Joan finally settling in Wuerzburg with her father.

Keeping up with her studies, Joan is now learning German and Russian, and is continuing her piano lessons with her father. She plans to continue and complete her education either at Pacific or at the University of California when she returns in two years.

Joan would like to say hello to all her old friends and wishes that they would write to her when they get a chance. Her address is Miss Joan Oje, c/o Major Lyle Oje; Hqs. 7806, A.P.O. 800; c/o P. M., New York, N. Y.

Food Processing Seems Neglected College Subject

By NADINE REASONER

There is one college major we seemed to have neglected or perhaps we do not even know about. This subject comes under the heading of "Food Processing Administration and Control" in the COP catalog.

It is doubtful if many students know what and where the food processing lab is. It is a section in the Art Building, next to the Radio Studio, where classes are offered in preparing students for participation in the administration and laboratory control activities of the giant industry food processing. And the College of the Pacific has a definite advantage in being situated in the midst of the nation's most important food processing area.

A curriculum has been outlined in which the student, after obtaining a wide basis in the scientific and economic principles on which the industry is based, may specialize in the laboratory control phase of the industry or the business administration phase.

Sofeia Hitt is instructor and director of the laboratory.

The student interested in this field has an excellent opportunity at COP to gain the knowledge necessary to go on to success after graduation.

the national radio fraternity.

The wedding date has been set for early June.

The suggestions are being referred to Sue Billups, Social Chairman.

For those in distant lands, who will receive your gift with renewed hope, we thank you.

Petroleum Association Opens Essay Contest

A chance to win $500.00 in prizes is offered to the undergraduate students throughout the country by the Association of Petroleum Re-Refiners, Washington, D.C. Contestants are invited to submit papers on the subject, "The Advantages of Re-Refined Oil," Verne T. Worthington, president of the Association announced last week.

Purpose of the contest, according to Worthington, is to further research on the re-cycling of a vital natural resource in the interests of oil conservation. He explained the bibliography on the subject is somewhat limited and another of the purposes of the contest is to stimulate original research on the subject of the re-cycling of once-used lubricating oil.

Students desiring to enter the contest may secure a list of companies engaging in re-refining of oil and a summary of available data by writing: The Association of Petroleum Re-Refiners, 1917 Eye Street, W., Washington 6, D.C. Manuscripts must be no shorter than 1000 words and no longer than 2000 words in length and be submitted to the Association's Contest Committee postmarked no later than March 31, 1952.

First prize will be $250.00, second prize, $100.00 with three other prizes of $50.00 each.
