JORGE RESIGNS COP MENTOR TO CARDINALS

By BUZZ KAHN

Ernie Jorge, probably the most popular football coach in college or professional circles, made a brief farewell speech to his grid charges Tuesday afternoon, and then announced to College of the Pacific officials that he was leaving Stockton to join the coaching staff of the Chicago Cardinals, despite the fact that he had been offered a three-year contract to remain at COP. Thus Ernie Jorge packed away his familiar Hawaiian sports shirts and "denims" and joined the rank of the "play for pay" boys.

Yes, it's true. No school on Thursday or Friday of next week. Lincoln's Birthday combined with the Spring Weather did it.

We, who have admired Ernie Jorge both as a coach and as a man, know that headman Joe Stydahar of the Chicago Cardinals made a wise choice when he selected the Turlock-bred mentor to help him raise the windy-city eleven to pro football prominence.

From his 1936-37-38 playing days at St. Mary's under Slip Madigan up to the January 1st, 1953 victory by his Tigers over Mississippi in the Sun Bowl, Ernie has exhibited only a true desire to win fairly and honestly with a humble spirit too often missing in men involved in the coaching profession.

Too much cannot be said about the contributions of Ernie Jorge to College of the Pacific football fortunes. His stalwart lines of 1947-48-49 and '50 were highly instrumental in giving the Tigers the reputation of being the outstanding independent football team in the west.

His skillful line tutelage prepared professional stalwarts Duane Putnam of the Los Angeles Rams, Bob Moser, Chicago Bears, Don "Tiny Campora" of the San Francisco 49ers, and Keever Jankovich of the Baltimore Colts for the tough competition of pro ball.

In 1951, faced with the hardest schedule in Pacific history, Ernie Jorge gave COP a winning 6-4 season, despite being forced to hire almost a complete new coaching staff immediately prior to spring practice, and hit by several family tragedies that would have put many of the best men off their feet.

1952 found our Ernie adjusted and ready to face another difficult season, and in this his sophomore year, he proved to Pacificites and the nation as well, that he had reached coaching maturity by guiding the Tiger grid forces to a highly victorious season

All About Women

The unique collegiate phenomenon known as rush week has just begun its course.

It will be material for a drama, comedy and satire all rolled into one.

The conversation will be especially inspiring. Here's a somewhat exaggerated version of an exchange between a Friendly Member and a Wide-eyed Freshman. (The wide-eyed part is strictly fictional; most of them are about as naive and impressionable as charter members of the Black Hand.)

Friendly Member: Great to have you up here, son. My name is Orkney McLout. May I take your coat?

Wide-Eyed Freshman: My name is Sam Snodgrass, and I'll keep the coat for awhile. I may want leave.

FM: (Heartily) Ha Ha Ha. Well, Sam, where are you from?

WEF: Oh, I don't know. My old man's on the dodge and I ain't heard from him for three months. How much does it cost to pledge this house?

FM: (Very Heartily) Ho, Ho, Ho. Oh it doesn't cost much at all, and we'll pay your way if you are a little short. Now let me show you the rooms — right here is one of our nicer ones. Look at that big roomy closet and the big soft chair, all for only six guys. Isn't that wonderful?

WEF: Yeah.

FM: I knew you'd like it. Now let me show you the sleeping porches. (Opens porch door and blast of ice-cold air comes out.) Ah! Real fresh air. Just what a man needs to keep healthy. None of that stuffy dead stuff.

WEF: Yeah, but how do ya get up to the top bunk without waking up the five guys below you? How do ya?

FM: I knew you'd like the house, Sam, now let me tell you a little about the men we have up here. For instance, there's Dudley Rahrah, president of the campus bird-watching society and vice president of the Friday afternoon beer club, and for all of that he's just a plain, modest likeable guy. And then there is Deltoid

... Will You Be The Next?

Once again a College of the Pacific Coed has been attacked on or near the campus. This time, as before, the girl concerned was lucky. She managed to beat off her assailant and run.

Last fall, in October, a girl strolling alone was grabbed from behind, and thrown to the ground, while her assailant tried to choke her. She managed to break away and run screaming back to her living group, with only a fair description of the man.

December 11 was the next attempt. Again, the girl was walking alone, after dark. This time, a better description was obtained, but no one has as yet been apprehended. This girl got away with a slight knife wound in her back.

Last Monday night another COP coed was grabbed from behind while walking across the campus alone, after dark. This time the fog was thick and the man got away without a description. Next time, it could be you.

Take the advice of the Dean of Women and travel at night only in groups of three or more ON or OFF campus. Be especially careful at night around the more deserted areas of the campus and city.

Report ANY suspicious loitering at ONCE to the Dean or the City Police Department, or your house mother.

These girls didn't expect anything to happen to them, but it did. Will the next one be you?

Prewitt Elected

Dr. E. Russell Prewitt, minister of the First Methodist Church, Bakersfield, was elected to the COP board of trustees at its first 1953 meeting in Stockton.

Prewitt will join with the board at the next meeting, March 24, on the COP campus.

culminated by the win in El Paso.

Perhaps the statement made by graduate manager of athletics, Jerry Kirsten, following Ernie's surprise announcement most fully illustrates the feelings of all those who have grown to know and admire the popular mentor:

"We very much regret that Coach Jorge has seen fit to accept an offer which he feels gives him a better opportunity."

"His decision was made after discussing all aspects of the situation with his family and deciding his course of action would be for his betterment."

"While we are all sorry to see him leave, his departure in no way affects our planning concerning the future of athletics at Pacific."

"We feel fortunate to have had a man of Coach Jorge's ability and character leading our football teams for the past two years. We feel he will be successful in whatever endeavor he undertakes."

"We may get a man to replace him who is as good a coach; there isn't a man who is a better man."

Kirsten added that no decision on a successor to Ernie would be announced for a month, but that applications for the job would be accepted immediately.

Married and the father of a twelve year old daughter, the forty year old football expert will be in Chicago for the next two weeks discussing plans with Joe Stydahr, himself hired to succeed Joe Kuharich only last week.

Like Ernie Jorge, Stydahr has had a very successful coaching career. While leading the Los Angeles Rams "Jumbo Joe" won the world championship in 1951 before being rudely fired by owner Dan Reeves at the opening of the '52 season.

The two coaches have been friendly for three years, and according to Coach Jorge: "We see eye to eye on how the game of football should be played." While we feel saddened through the knowledge that Ernie Jorge will not be with the College of the Pacific when we meet the Stanfords, Washington Staters, and Tulsans of 1953, we are proud that our coach has been selected to fill such an important position in the football world.

Taylor Announces Five Tours For 1953

Elliott J. Taylor, COP director of tours, has announced five conducted tours scheduled for 1953.

An eight-day chartered bus trip, the sixth annual California Missions and Historical Landmarks Tour, leaves Stockton on March 28 and returns April 4. On its itinerary are all 21 of the Franciscan Missions from Sonoma to San Diego and other historical landmarks and locations.

CALIFORNIA HISTORIAN

Dr. Rockwell D. Hunt, author of some 14 volumes on California history, is the guide and lecturer. Conductor and manager of the trip is Dr. Richard Coke Wood, also a California student and writer.

Part of the summer travel opportunities are two trips to Alaska, July 2 to July 20, and July 31 to August 18. Transportation is by the S.S. Aleutian one way and by air transport the other. On the sight-seeing list are Ketchikan, the Inside Passage, Wrangell, Juneau, Seward, Anchorage, Mt. McKinley National Park, Fairbanks, and Whitehorse. Conductors of the tours have not been announced.

BAKER CONDUCTS

Dr. Alonzo L. Baker, professor of political science and current history radio commentator, will head the annual COP summer tour of Europe. The forty-five day junket will depart from California on June 21 to travel through France, Italy, Switzerland, Germany, Holland, Denmark, Norway, and England. Both Atlantic crossings are by air. The party returns to New York City on August 8.

The sixth annual Christmas season flight to Mexico, conducted by Elliott Taylor, will be scheduled for approximately December 20, 1953.

TOURS OPEN

All COP tours are open to students, teachers and public. College credit may be earned on all tours, but registration for credit is optional. Certain assigned readings, reports, or papers, are required for those who apply for credit.

Foreign Universities Offer Opportunities

By PAT LAMB

Norway, Germany and Belgium are offering U.S. students educational opportunities in their universities.

NORWAY

Any student who has completed his freshman year is eligible to attend the Oslo Summer School. The school, which is held June 27 to August 8, is offering full and partial scholarships. The field of study is not designated for the partial scholarships, but one of the full scholarships requires an economic major, another has no designated field. For further information write Oslo Summer School Admissions Office, St. Olaf College, Northfield, Minnesota.

GERMANY

Wayne University, in Detroit, is sponsoring "the junior year in Munich." Required are a basic two years of college German and approval of the student's course of study by his home university. An orientation course is offered in Sept. Then in November the student would be occupied by German grammar, German drama, the History of Art, The German Novel, and the German Lyric. The total cost is approximately $1400, this includes transportation, tuition and board and room.

BELGIUM

All pre-medical students with a knowledge of French or Dutch are eligible for study in Louvain, Belgium. Applications including a transcript, a confidential recommendation and a catalogue describing the courses fully, are due March 1st. These should be sent to Guy Bruynoghe, Secretary of the Faculty of Medicine, Catholic University of Louvain, 102 rue Vital Decoster, Louvain, Belgium. Decisions will be made the 15th of March.

There are no scholarships or loans available, but living conditions are lower than in U.S. The standards of the University are very high but provide a chance to get an understanding of the European people. For further information consult the Journal of the American Medical Association for Sept. 13, 1952.

All these colleges offer U.S. students a chance for unusual opportunities in education, and abroad.

IF YOU CAN WIN THESE WINGS YOU CAN EARN OVER $5,000 A YEAR AFTER GRADUATION

Important facts about the opportunities for YOU as a Commissioned Officer—Pilot or Aircraft Observer— in the United States Air Force

Must I be a college graduate to be a Pilot?

No. But you must have completed a minimum of 60 semester hours or 90 quarter hours toward a degree. In addition, under the new Aviation Cadet Pilot training program, you must be between the ages of 19 and 26½ years, unmarried, and in good physical condition—with high requirements for eyes, ears, heart and teeth.

How long before I get my commission?

60 calendar weeks. You will receive the finest aviation training in the world—training that not only equips you to fly modern military aircraft but prepares you for executive and administrative work as well. At the completion of your training, you will have acquired a commission as a 2nd Lieutenant and won the coveted silver wings of the United States Air Force.

Where do I take my training?

Pre-flight training will be at Lackland Air Force Base, San Antonio, Texas. Primary, basic and advanced training will be taken at any one of the many Air Force bases located throughout the South and Southwest.

What happens if I flunk the training course?

Every effort is made to help students whose progress is unsatisfactory. You can expect extra instructions and whatever individual attention you may require. However, if you fail to complete the course as an Aviation Cadet, you will be required to serve a two-year enlistment to fulfill the minimum requirement under Selective Service laws.

What pay do I get as an Aviation Cadet? And after?

As an Aviation Cadet you draw $109.20 a month pay. In addition, you get summer and winter uniforms, flight clothes, equipment, food, housing, medical and dental care and insurance ... all free. After you are commissioned a 2nd Lieutenant you will be earning $5,300.00 a year—with unlimited opportunities for advancement.

Are all Aviation Cadets trained to be Pilots?

No. You can choose between becoming a Pilot or an Aircraft Observer. Men who choose the latter will become commissioned officers in Navigation, Bombardment, Radar Operation, or Aircraft Performance Engineering.

Do Aircraft Observers get flying training, too?

Yes. Aircraft Observer Cadets receive approximately 200 hours of "in the air" instruction. The primary phase of Aircraft Observer training is the same for all branches (navigation, bombardment, etc.). The basic and advanced phase of training varies, depending on the specific course you wish to pursue.

What kind of ships will I fly?

You will fly jets. The Pilot Cadet takes his first instructions in a light, civilian-type plane of approximately 100 horsepower, then graduates to the 600 horsepower T-6 "Texan" before receiving transition training in jets. You then advance gradually until you are flying such famous first-line aircraft as F-86 Sabre, F-49 Scorpion, B-47 Stratojet, B-50 Superfortress. Observer Cadets take flight instructions in the C-47 Dakota, the T-29 Convair, and the TB-Superfortress before advancing to first-line aircraft such as the F-89 Scorpion, B-47 Stratojet or TB-50 Superfortress.

Will my commission be in the Regular Air Force or Reserve?

Aviation Cadet graduates, both Pilots and Aircraft Observers get Reserve commissions as 2nd Lieutenants. Some outstanding graduates in both programs will be offered Regular commissions.

How long must I remain in Service?

After graduation as an Aviation Cadet, you are tendered an indefinite appointment in the United States Air Force Reserve and are called to active duty with the United States Air Force for a period of three years.

What recreation and leisure time will I have as a Cadet?

Discipline will be rigid—especially for the first few weeks. However, it is not all work. You'll find swimming pools, handball courts, movies and other forms of recreation on the post. After your first 4 months, your commandant may allow you to apply for overnight passes.

Where will I be stationed when I get my commission?

You may be stationed anywhere in the world ... Hawaii, Far East, Europe, Puerto Rico, elsewhere. During your tour of duty, you will be in close touch with the latest developments in new flying techniques. You will continue to build up your flying experience and later, should have no difficulty securing a CAA commercial pilot rating.

Your future is assured if you can qualify! Here's what to do:

- 1 Take a transcript of your college credits and a copy of your birth certificate to your nearest Air Force Base or Recruiting Station. Fill out the application they give you.
- 2 If application is accepted, the Air Force will arrange for you to take a physical examination at government expense.
- 3 Next, you will be given a written and manual aptitude test.
- 4 If you pass your physical and other tests, you will be scheduled for an Aviation Cadet training class. The Selective Service Act allows you a four-month deferment while waiting class assignment.

BULLDOGS EKE BY TIGERS PULL AHEAD IN LAST MINUTES

The Tigers of C.O.P. once again continued their losing ways. Tuesday night a speedy band of Fresno State College "Bulldogs" came behind in the final five minutes to up-end the locals 64 to 57. The game was tied 12 times.

The rejuvenated Bengals, gunning for their first victory in their past 15 games, started with a rush as Sosnick hit first to give the Tigers a 2-0 lead. Then Lowell Reynolds, the Bulldog's big center, tied things with a hook shot. From there it was nip and tuck with neither team being able to get more than three points ahead of the other. The fighting Tigers led at the end of the opening quarter 21-18. Long baskets by Bartels and Jim Nash of Fresno again moved the Bulldogs back into the lead.

The Tigers, however, weren't to be denied, and with Sosnick turning in a phenomenal shooting performance, they turned on the steam to roll ahead to a well deserved 32-30 half-time lead. Only Fresno State's superior height kept them so close to the hustling Pacificans during the first half.

The second half started much the same as the first as both teams grappled to obtain a lead. "Jumping Buzzy" Kahn moved C.O.P. into a 42-40 lead as the third period came to a close. During the second half, Fresno played a four man zone defense, but assigned one man to stick with "Lil" Gene Sosnick in an effort to stop him from scoring.

The Bulldogs Len Tucker gave Fresno their first second half lead as he swished in a one-hinder from 20 feet out. Gene Wellman, fast improving guard, and Buzz Kahn erased that lead however as they scored to give the home owners a 49-47 advantage at the end of the quarter.

As far as the Tigers are concerned the game should have stopped then as the roof fell in on them in the remaining 10 minutes. Jim Nash, Bill Rosener, and Tucker, fast broke the Staters into the biggest lead of the ball game, 54-49.

Again shots by Kahn and Wellman cut the lead to 56-53 with but a minute and a half remaining. In that final minute the desperate Bengals fouled 6 times in attempting to regain the ball. The Fresno five countered on five of the charity tosses to take a commanding 64-57 lead as the buzzer sounded on a thrilling hard-fought game.

Gene Sosnick continued his torrid scoring pace as he scored 20 points.

BENGALS HOST U.S.F. DONS C.B.A. LEAGUE LEADERS AT GYM

By JIM BOVERO

Tomorrow night the College of Pacific "Tigers" host the University of San Francisco "Dons" in a game that will prove to be a thriller in the Pacific Pavilion. The Dons are what is known as a "streak team."

Gene Wellman climbs the frame of Spartan Lee Jensen to bucket two points. Pacific's Gene Sosnick is screened out by State's Carol Williams.

They have lost 7 games in a row, then won 6 games in a row, then won 1 and lost 2. U.S.F. has an experienced, well rounded club and are currently leading the California Basketball Association league with a won 3, lost 0 record and are considered the team to beat in C.B.A. play. If the Tigers win this game it will put the pressure on the Dons in their two remaining league games with St. Mary's and Santa Clara to see who will nab the championship crown.

Since Vukicivich and Pacific's Gene Sosnick are both high scoring guards they will probably be matching field goals all night. By the way, Carrol Doty, of the athletic publicity office, announced earlier this week that if Sosnick keeps up his average of 17.5 points for 16 games he will be the first Pacific player to score over 400 points in one season. As of Tuesday of this week Gene had scored 262 points, which is very good in any league.

This will be the first time that coach Phil Woolpert has matched wits with coach Van Sweet. Woolpert is in his third year of coaching at U.S.F. while Van is in his first year at C.O.P. Woolpert previously mentored at St. Ignatius High School in San Francisco while Van Sweet had been coaching at Stockton College.

In the preliminary tilt the high flying Pacific freshmen host a strong aggregation of U.S.F. freshmen. Bud Watkins, former Pacific player, and now coach of the freshmen team, will be out after his seventh victory in ten starts. The Don freshmen though, under the tutelage of Ross Guidice, former U.S.F. star, will be trying to hand the Cubs their fourth loss. Both teams are well balanced and on an even par so watch for a nip and tuck battle right down to the wire.

Swimmers Commence

Readying for a tentative 10 meet schedule Coach Chris Kjeldsen has already begun plans for grooming his 1953 Bengal crew for the coming swimming season.

TOP MAN

The sprint department will be lead by Boyd Mickley, twice Junior College all-American; Bill Chapman, transfer from Hawaii and Frosh Bob Hardman and Al MacMillan. Last seasons' most improved swimmer Warner Gerke, will hold down the backstroke slot.

The 220 and 440 distance races will be handled by Dick Conwell, also a two-time winner on the JC All American list. Helping out Conwell will be Ted Tiss, and Howard Runion.

Tigers Downed Again; Spartans Do It, 66-54

The winless COP Tigers went down to defeat for the fourth consecutive time in C.B.A. league play Saturday night, as the rival San Jose State Spartans put on a second-half splurge to drop the Tigers 66-54, in a game played at the Pacific Gym before 800 fans.

TIGERS TIE IT UP

Led by the cheers of a new and impromptu yell leader, Tom McCormick, the upset minded men of Van Sweet finally tied the visitors 22-22, as Sosnick swished a long 30 footer in the middle of the second period.

SOSNICK FOULS OUT

The final stanza found the Spartans pulling away on a series of charity tosses and driving baskets of Carroll Williams, States' thin man guard. The local hopes for victory faded as dynamic Gene Sosnick, COP's leading scorer, fouled out with 7 minutes remaining to play. From that point the Spartans five forged ahead to win going away, 66-54 and extend the jinx.

... the TIGER'S DEN

By NORM HARRIS

WELL HERE IT IS, the start of a new semester, new news, and a new staff to bring to you. We on the Sports Staff hope to bring you a complete coverage on the sports scene at Pacific. There is ample material on hand to provide interesting reading for all. We want to receive news, criticisms, suggestions, or any other comments on the page and assure you that these will be greatly appreciated.

WHILE WE'RE SPEAKING of prominent athletic personages, we'd like to offer a few words of praise for little Gene Sosnick, former sports editor of the Weekly, for his successes on the hardwoods this year. Gene is playing some of the best ball we've ever seen him play and apparently other people think so too. He was just named to a "Little All-Coast" group of ball players. "Little," in this case means stature. The other players named: Bob Matheny (Cal), Ron Livingston (UCLA), Ron Thomise (Stanford) and Chuck Reilly (USC). all are from large universities. Congratulations to Gene and we hope he keeps up the good work.

THE BIGGEST SURPRISE so far this semester was the failure of well-liked ERNIE JORGE to sign the new three-year contract offered by College of Pacific. The genial Tiger football mentor had just finished leading the Bengal footballers to a successful season. His coaching at Pacific resulted with a top record for two years and splitting in Two Sun Bowl games. He lost to a powerful Texas Tech Team in 1953 but returned the following year to whip a highly potent Mississippi Southern team 26-7. His departure will be keenly felt by faculty and students alike.

ON THE BRIGHTER SIDE was the announcement of the hiring of Ed Zuchelli as director of Athletic Promotions at College of Pacific.

Zuchelli has been engaged in public relations in Los Angeles since leaving college a year ago. He will handle all special events and promotions conducted by the C.O.P. Athletic Department. "Zuke's" unboundless enthusiasm and personality will be an asset to Pacific's attack on the athletic world.

READ AN ARTICLE in the San Francisco Chronicle recently in which Coach Nibs Price of University of California stated he saw his Bears play a perfect eight minutes of basketball against University of Southern California in the Bears' conquest of the Trojans. It's too bad that Coach Price couldn't have been around when our own Tigers put on a perfect exhibition of Van Sweet's type of ball against the St. Mary's Gaels two weeks ago for thirty-five minutes of playing time. The big difference in the two games, of course, was that Cal won its game while the Tigers let down in the final five minutes and went on to lose in an overtime game, 62-60.

Speaking of good basketball we hear that Fred Miller, Burt Delavan and Tom McCormick are burning up the league in Stockton City League play. They're playing for the State Hospital Five. Could be that Coach Van Sweet is missing something.

McCormick also seems to be interested in yell-leading. In last week's game with San Jose State he stirred up more spirit than we've seen at a basketball game for many a day. Didn't realize that Pacific rooters could make that much noise.

THE NOISE MUST have bothered the Tiger men. San Jose won its seventh straight game on our home court. The whole school seems to have a congenial attitude towards the Spartans. The football team has lost its last two home games to the Spartans, also.

WE HEAR THAT the C.O.P. Ski Club is developing into a top-flight organization. Their recent trip to Dodge Ridge for a weekend was a huge success. Besides offering a promising social agenda, the Ski Club has top flight instructors. Coach Godie Schuetz, skiers Mike Franceschini and Bob Spiekerman are all tried and true performers on the slopes. They offer excellent advice and instruction to skiers and non-skiers on the fine art of skiing.

The Club's major function is to support the C.O.P. Ski Team in their major events.

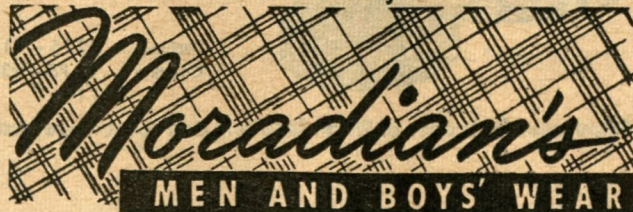

The Ski Team has developed some quite capable skiers in Franceschini and Spiekerman. They have strong depth in skiers George Pope, Frank Baldwin, John Witter, Jerry Pickering, Barney Nelson, and Elton Murphy. Their first big meet will be in the Dodge Ridge Invitational February 12-16th. They will be competing against Cal, UCLA, San Jose and Modesto J.C. These are some of the strongest ski teams on the Coast so why don't you join the Ski Club and kill two birds with one stone. Support the Ski team and enjoy yourselves.

All prospective candidates for C.O.P. Varsity and Freshman baseball meet with Coach Van Sweet Monday, Feb. 9 at 3:30 in the Gym. Also, anyone interested in managing the team is urged to attend.

The track team needs you! Anyone with or without previous experience in track is urged to contact Coach Earl Jackson immediately.

Frosh After Successful Season; Pacific's Top Athletic Aggregation

By RON LEINEKE

With a season record of six wins and three losses, the Frosh Basketball team is Pacific's only current winning athletic aggregation. Sparked by such dependable performers as Cesare Ciatti, Spook Sylva, Ron Stark, Bob McGowen, Roger Linn, and "Red" Saltzen, the team has given its coach, Bud Watkins and its large following ample entertainment on the hardwoods. The squad has been temporarily weakened by the loss of Bob "Head Fake" McGowen and Dallas Brock. Dallas suffered a sprained ankle while Schroeder is down with a painful muscle twitch.

SCORING PUNCH

Leading scorers for the team are Cece Ciatti and Spook Sylva. Their scoring punch is supported by the excellent board work of Lyman Saltzen and Roger "Rajah" Linn, while the floor play and showmanship of McGowan and Vince Gomez are continual crowd pleasers.

One of the men responsible for the success of the team due to his integral position was George Clever, the manager, who is quite a clever fellow when it comes to nursemaiding a team. Roses to you, George!

Coach Bud Watkins can be given much credit for this was his first season as a basketball mentor, and as the team's current record shows, he has done a creditable job. Good luck, Bud, on your coaching career.

Baseball Outlook Slim; INTRAMURALS START

After a poor season last year, together with the loss to pro ranks of such stars as Bud Watkins and John Noce, it looks as if Pacific's prospects for a winning season on the diamond are going to be hard to attain.

TOP RETURNEES

The best thing that Van Sweet, new Tiger mentor, has to look forward to is the return of Jerry Streeter and Frank Bevalagua. "Canary" Streeter led last year's varsity in practically every department and is considered an excellent pro prospect. "Bevo" Bevalagua is an effective chucker with speed to burn. Also returning will be Tom Fallon and Gene Wellman, two speedy outfielders who also are to be respected at the plate.

SCHEDULE UNCOMPLETED

Although the schedule has not been completed as of yet, it looks as though the Bengals will meet top competition throughout the season.

Several Army teams have been scheduled, among which is Fort Ord, whose roster contains an imposing array of pro and ex-collegiate stars. Rounding out the schedule will be many of the same schools which the basketball team found as opponents. A move to form a baseball league of the independent bay-area colleges has just recently been shelved, however Pacific will meet most of these teams.

AWS In Big-Little Sister Meet

By NADINE REASONER

The gym at the College of the Pacific was the scene last Wednesday, February the 4th, when the Associated Women Students held their spring Big 'n Lil Sister Party.

The main attraction was the fashion show of what to wear to the various social calendar activities; Mardi Gras, Homecoming, Band Frolic, etc. One event on the fashion show was sponsored by each of the living groups, WRA, Knolens and Sophomore Women's Honorary.

Of special interest, and a new feature, was a humorous skit enacted by several men who portrayed a typical campus situation — much to the amusement of the feminine contingent of the campus.

Jim Taylor, with his musical ability on the violin, livened up the evening as did a dance routine by Margie Logeson.

The evening closed with refreshments and a general "gab-session."

The party was planned and arranged by Bev Borror, AWS president; Ursula Herrick, vice-president; and Jeanette Olson, publicity chairman.

Richard Halley, Marilen Luke, and Carolyn Burton, Roosevelt School; Charlotte Rodman, Victory School; Helen Wolber, Woodrow Wilson School; Marilyn Wilcox, Roosevelt and Elmwood Schools; Nell Lindberg and Melvin Golden, Live Oak School; and Mrs. Gloria Torres, High School Annex.

SENATE NOTES

Honors and appointments for Pacific students and alumni have been passed out in the recent PSA Senate meetings.

Tom Kaney was voted the Order of the Tiger Tail, to be presented at a coming rally, for his part in planning the card tricks for the Pacific football games.

Al Mueller resigned as Commissioner of Drives because he graduated at the end of the semester. The Senate then named him as the new alumni representative.

Jack Mansfield was appointed to fill the vacant office of Drives Commissioner. One of the chief projects of this office is the drive for funds for the World Student Service Fund.

Fourth Faculty Review Presents Wide Range

Last Tuesday evening, five members of the COP faculty presented the Fourth Faculty Review. Featured were Mary Bowling, pianist; Horace Brown, violinist; J. Henry Welton, tenor; Edward Shadbolt, pianist; and Jo Spring Lancelle, accompanist.

The program was one of extreme variance, ranging from selections by Bach to those of Francis Poulenc. Starting the program was the F minor Sonata of Bach, played by Mary Bowling and Horace Brown. The next work was an Italian song cycle — Vignettes of Italy, sung by J. Henry Welton. As a concluding duo, both pianists, Edward Shadbolt and Mary Bowling played the Schubert variations for four hands and Poulenc's Sonata (1918).

"What Gives Meaning" Studied By Y Group

By CAREEN FORBES

Under hash last weekend at the "Y" cabin trip was "What gives meaning to our college experience?" Ten students, accompanied by Dean Betz and Dr. Painter, composed the group.

Most of the time Friday evening and Saturday was spent in bull sessions at the mountain retreat. One of the major discussions revolved around "What is reality?" and it evoked some deep thinking.

Students making the trip were Bob Butterbaugh, Don Fado, Don Jessup, Fred Knepper, Phil Miyamoto, Horton Peckenpaugh, Eugene Ronten, Donald Salso, Peter Schneider, and David Wolf. Jessup and Peckenpaugh were in direct charge of the trip.

Upon their arrival at the cabin Friday evening, the group found that the caretaker was not around and neither was a key.

Weekly Photos Are Waiting To Be Claimed

Are you losing face? There are a lot of familiar faces drifting around the Weekly office.

Donna Alberti, Janice Comstock, Carol Conklin, Jeannie Hills, Mary Ellen Jack, Mr. and Mrs. LaMonde, Frances Pini, Bill Sibley and Diane Strand seem to have lost theirs. So as there are enough characters on the Weekly, we would appreciate it if they would pick up their pictures before they are misplaced in the round file.

CRA Holds Semi-Annual Banquet Monday Night; To Name Press Sec.

The Council of Religious Activities held its semi-annual banquet in Anderson Y Monday night.

One topic of discussion was a plan for living group discussions of religious interests and problems. The informal faculty-led discussions held during Religious Emphasis Period in October were received with enthusiasm and plans are being made for similar discussions in the future.

The second item of business was the authorization of the CRA Executive Committee, which is headed by Phil Wogaman, to appoint a press secretary to work in cooperation with publicity organizations, including the Pacific Weekly, to publicize activities of CRA.

The semi-annual CRA banquet was attended by members of the following campus religious groups: Men's "Y", Women's "Y", Chi Rho, Newman Club for Catholic students, Christian Science group, Canterbury Club for Episcopal students, Hillel Club for Jewish students, Central Wesley Fellowship for Methodist students, Presbyterian group, all-campus Methodist Committee, Pacific Christian Fellowship, Vespers Committee in charge of Wednesday evening Vesper Services, and the Chapel Committee in charge of plans for Tuesday Chapel services.

AOT PLANS BLACK AND WHITE BALL

Trustees Slated To Authorize Library

With the expected approval in the meeting of March 24, the College of the Pacific Board of Trustees will authorize for completion the final major construction project of the centennial objectives set up several years ago — the new library.

To answer the question in everyone's mind: "Where will it be built?" — the new library will fulfill the original plan of making the campus into a quadrangle; it will be located on the south side of the main quadrangle, between North Hall and the Chapel.

Sam, Basket-weaving Major

Sam, the basket-weaving major, was sitting exactly where he sits most of the time — the End Zone First booth behind the noise box, over a hectic game of chess. And, as usual, his favorite subject, "campus wheels" is being debated by his loyal following.

"Now the way I see it" Sam was saying, "everyone who is anything on campus belongs to a clique."

"Take me and you, for instance, are we named as members of Blue Key? No. Why it's so obvious that you have to belong to a clique that I didn't even bother to make out one of those information cards.

"Student activities, bah! You go to a meeting or something and who's running the meeting . . . one of the clique.

"Those guys are in everything. The average Joe Collegiate can't do a thing without seeing the president of some outfit first, or going through a student council or through PSA . . . Boy, someday I'm going to get good and mad and do something about exposing these guys who try to run everything!

"You'd think they would give someone else a break once in a while."

"Hey Sam," someone calls from the other side of the room, "Have you taken your picture proofs back to the Naranjado yet?"

"What are you trying to do, rush me? They've got all year to get that thing ready. And besides, it's my yearbook, isn't it? Let them wait till I'm ready."

"Don't wait beyond the 14th, boy, to turn yours in to the Naranjado office or to Bob Pardis in Lincoln Village, or you just might miss out on things."

"So nigh is grandeur to our dust,
 So near is God to man,
 When Duty whispers low, Thou must,
 Sam replies, HE can.

MORE WOMEN!

Virull, captain of the lacrosse team, and a real simple, happy guy. Here's Deltoid right now.

Deltoid: I am a big dumb athlete. I can dress myself, feed myself, and do menial chores.

FM: That's fine, Deltoid, now go back to your room; dinner will be later. Sam, what's your major here at college?

WEF: Well, I kind of like biology.

FM: That's fine, Sam, you mean — you study all those theories?

WEF: No, I mean applied biology.

FM: Well, Sam, it's almost time to leave now. Is there anything else you'd like to know about the house?

WEF: Yeah, where's the beer. I'm a little thirsty.

And so on. And so forth. Somewhere in the whole process there are a lot of significant conclusions that could be drawn. Right now, we are tired.

U.S. Air Force Calls For Meteorologists

Men or women students interested in receiving training as meteorologists under the USAF's Air Weather Service may obtain information on this field at a meeting with Lt. C. B. Steele on Tuesday, February 10.

This training not only authorizes you for work in the air force, but gives you a background of training for civilian jobs and positions in other fields of science as well. Training courses can also be used to earn credit for a master's degree.

Anyone is eligible to apply who is less than 27 years old, has an AB degree, including math through integral calculus and college physics, and can fulfill the qualifications for military service as an officer.

Successful applicants will be commissioned in the grade of second lieutenant and will be ordered to active military service for three years following the completion of the year's training course. Pay will be about $335 per month, depending upon the number of dependents and the rate of advancement.

Further information about the USAF's Air Weather Service training program or the meeting with Lt. Steele may be obtained in the office of the dean of men.
