FRATERNITY RUSHING ENDS PLEDGE PERIOD STARTS

By LAVERNE LYSTER

Last Monday the fraternity rushees picked up their bids at Dean Betz's office, proceeded to their respective houses and were welcomed by endless entertainment. The boys are now bracing themselves for the rugged pledge period, which will last from 8 to 10 weeks. The final week being Hell Week, after which the pledges will become full-fledged members.

The rushees attentive audience was composed of several members from the various sororities, whose houses extended their recognition by telegrams of congratulations.

Twenty-eight Archites welcomed their new pledge class in the traditional manner, carrying them into their house on their shoulders and ringing the bells. This was followed by a pinning ceremony where the pledges received their pledge pins and were assigned to big brothers.

Archania's pledges:

Andy Anderson, Joel Evans, Robert Hardman, Stan Miller, Claire Sahlman, Cleve Scott, Donald Solso, Byron Wildermuth, Irvin Wittmayer.

Prospective Rhizites were welcomed by Rhizomia's 21 members Monday at five o'clock and were served dinner later in the evening. There was a formal pinning ceremony yesterday, when the boys received their pledge pins, which are to be worn at all times during the pledge period.

Rhizomia's pledges:

Dick Eichenberger, Bob Giardina, Robert Heitman, Jim Huth, Roger Linn, Bob McGowan, Bill Munselle, Lou Rovens, Ed Eastberg, Dave Tivio.

Omega Phi's 31 members welcomed their new pledges with a buffet dinner and varied entertainment. After a strenuous nine weeks of pledging, these same boys will become fraternity men at a formal initiation service held in Morris Chapel.

Omega Phi's pledges:

Tulan To Be Symphony Organ Soloist

Fred Tulan, a former Pacific journalism student, will be organ soloist with the Stockton Symphony Monday evening at 8:30 o'clock in the Stockton High School Auditorium.

The orchestra, in its 26th season, with Manlio Silva conducting, has Pacific faculty member Horace I. Brown as concertmaster.

The concerto to be presented was written in 1938 by the well-known French composer, Francis Poulence. It is scored for organ with string orchestra and kettle drums and is the first organ concerto to be presented by the local symphony group.

While at Pacific, Tulan was music, drama and art critic, and managing editor of the Weekly, music editor of the Naranjado, and did musical criticism for the Stockton Record. He was affiliated with Archania, president of the Newman Club, and active on the Mardi Gras and other committees.

He studies organ in San Francisco with Inez McCarthy, and formerly in Stockton with Frances Hogan Winter. Two summers at Pomona College he studied in master classes with such notable American organists as E. Power Biggs (who gave the American premiere and recorded the Poulence concerto), Leo Sowerby, Joseph Clokey, Arthur Poister and David McWilliams.

Tulan was a delegate to the 1950 national convention of the American Guild of Organists in Boston, and attended three other AGO conventions on the West Coast. At present, he is planning a pipe organ of functional design for a modern church soon to be built in Stockton.

Admission to the concert, which will include the orchestra in works by Rossini and Kallinkov, is $1.00.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Pacific Weekly
Letters to the Editor
End Zone — Booth Three

Dear Editor

Concerning your scare editorial, "Will You Be Next," in last weeks Weekly, I think that you have got a good idea, but that you are putting your emphasis in the wrong place. Pacific coeds SHOULD BE ABLE TO WALK ALONE AT NIGHT ON THE CAMPUS regardless of the fact that Stockton is a rough town. It certainly will work a hardship on some of the girls who have classes at night or have to practice music or wish to do research in the library. It is sometimes hard to find several others who are going to the same place at the same time.

Instead of working along this line why don't we ask that the campus be better lighted at night. Naturally there are some spots that are better unlighted, but it is not too often that females go to these spots unescorted, at least at night. The campus is not well lighted at best, and some of the lights have not been on for the last month or so. Campus Way, which runs from South Hall past Anderson Hall, North Hall, and ends up in Omega Phi's living room is a good example. There are only three lights plus the "silent chaperone" light in front of South Hall. These three lights are all on the northeast side of the street and the immediate vicinity of Anderson Y and Anderson Hall is very dark at night. Burcham Lane between South Hall and the Conservatory is not well lighted. Pacific circle between the Conservatory and the Chapel is not what I would call well-lighted. There is not one working light on Chapel Way between North Hall and the Chapel, nor is there one light on the road between North Hall and the Quonsets. The worst spot is along Staggy Way between the book store and the gym. This is the general vicinity of two of the attacks, and still nothing has been done about the poor lighting here.

Certainly here is a reform that the Weekly could champion. It is the RESPONSIBILITY of the administration of the College of Pacific TO SEE THAT SUCH OCCURRENCES DO NOT HAPPEN. If nothing else the principle of the thing should be thought of. Pacific coeds should have the freedom to walk on the campus at night alone. The Chronicle seems to be having success with their stories about jails in California. The Weekly certainly could spark this reform. Or maybe I should write to Pierre Salinger.

Sincerely,
A Concerned Student

Yearly Affliction Sets In; Band Frolic Championed Again

By MARILYN BOGGESS

Chorus lines clumping with the grace of percherons — off key choruses sounding forth—spring!

And once more the voice of Band Frolic is heard on our campus.

Cheers and prolonged applause.

Originally begun as a means to raise proceeds for the College of the Pacific band, the Band Frolic has grown into a colorful (and sometimes off-color) series of musical skits in which each living-group strives to out-do the other with costuming and music.

Although the central themes are many and varied, it is the aim of all to include as many slams as possible toward the school administration, board of trustees, football, and as many other institutions as time permits, and the April Fool spirit allows.

Suit Brought Against COP In Local Courts

Word was received last week that the College of the Pacific, in conjunction with the San Joaquin Baking Co. (sponsors of the Jr. Quarterback Club) is being sued for $151,870 as a result of an accident that occurred after the USF-COP football game of Nov. 17, 1951.

While leaving the stadium, a woman was struck in the right eye by a clod of dirt thrown by one of a group of boys standing on the north rim of the stadium. The woman was taken to the Emergency Hospital by the fire dispatch truck on the scene.

Emphasis is placed that the boys are only wanted to clarify the circumstances of the accident.

ANY information as to witnesses or the identity of the group involved would be very helpful in the college's case. Please contact the Pacific Weekly office, any member of the Board of Athletic Control, or Jerry Kirsten.

Lost In the Stars Concert Reading

Four Pacific undergraduates and two faculty members played important parts in the presentation last Sunday evening, February 15, in a reading-concert arrangement of "Lost in the Stars" at the Central Methodist Church.

Based on Alan Paton's novel "Cry, the Beloved Country," the play was written by Pulitzer Prize winner Maxwell Anderson, author of "Winterset" and "Elizabeth the Queen." Kurt Weill, who wrote the music for "Lost in the Stars" also composed the music for "One Touch of Venus."

Directing the reading of the play was Arthur Farey, Pacific's Director of Public Relations. Among the eighteen persons who read parts were Pacific undergraduates Gloria Johnson, Don Fado, Joe Johnson and Dave Wolf.

Arthur Holton, a member of the Pacific Conservatory faculty, directed the Stockton Chorale in the performance of the musical portions of the play.

More Band Frolic

The presentations of the living groups are judged by an impartial panel which selects six as finalists. The second evening the frolic is preceded by a concert by the band and then the finals begin in earnest.

Noteworthy among Band Frolics of previous years have been Tau Kappa's "Thou Swell," in which they claimed that King Arthur founded Pacific, Omega Phi's "County Fair," Epsilon's "Why was I Born," and Archana's "Pacific on Trial," to name the winners of the past two years. And with March 4 and 6 approaching, competition grows keen to add new lights to the roster of "great" Band Frolics.

This weekend climaxed a big event in the history of Radio Pacific. On Saturday the combined efforts of students from Stanford, Napa College, Chico, Modesto, San Francisco State, and COP worked this full day in a Radio Workshop. Broadcasts continued from morning till late afternoon including newscasts, disc jockey shows, interviews and dramas. After hashing over mutual broadcast problems, the group dined at Murphys and saw the theater production of "Harvey."

This semester's KCVN staff is already hard at work. The honors are as follows:

Station Manager: Jeanne ardie, Program Director: Bob Steres, Chief Announcer: Keith Baker, Continuity Directors: Jan Terbeek and Nadine Reasoner; Special Events: Jim Lehman; Sports: Dave Gilbert, Sales Manager: Chuck Hinkle, Chief Engineer: Rod Rigg, Publicity: Jerry Bogle.

On the local front, the campus station KCVN, is now conducting field tests in all living groups to determine the strength of KCVN's signal. In programming, different shows are now being originated for the benefit of you . . . our listening audience.

Vesper Service Invite Issued By Nisei YPCC

An innovation in vesper services, a combination of choral speaking and rhythmic expression, will climax all day conference of the Nisei Young People's Christian Conference of the Sacramento Valley here on February 22.

The purpose, as stated in the program is, "An attempt to add more meaning to worship through the interpretation of religious ideas and moods by choric speech and dance. The rhythmic choir is to be presented as an expression of religious feeling through creative, symbolic movements — a technique for praying with the body as well as with the mind and soul."

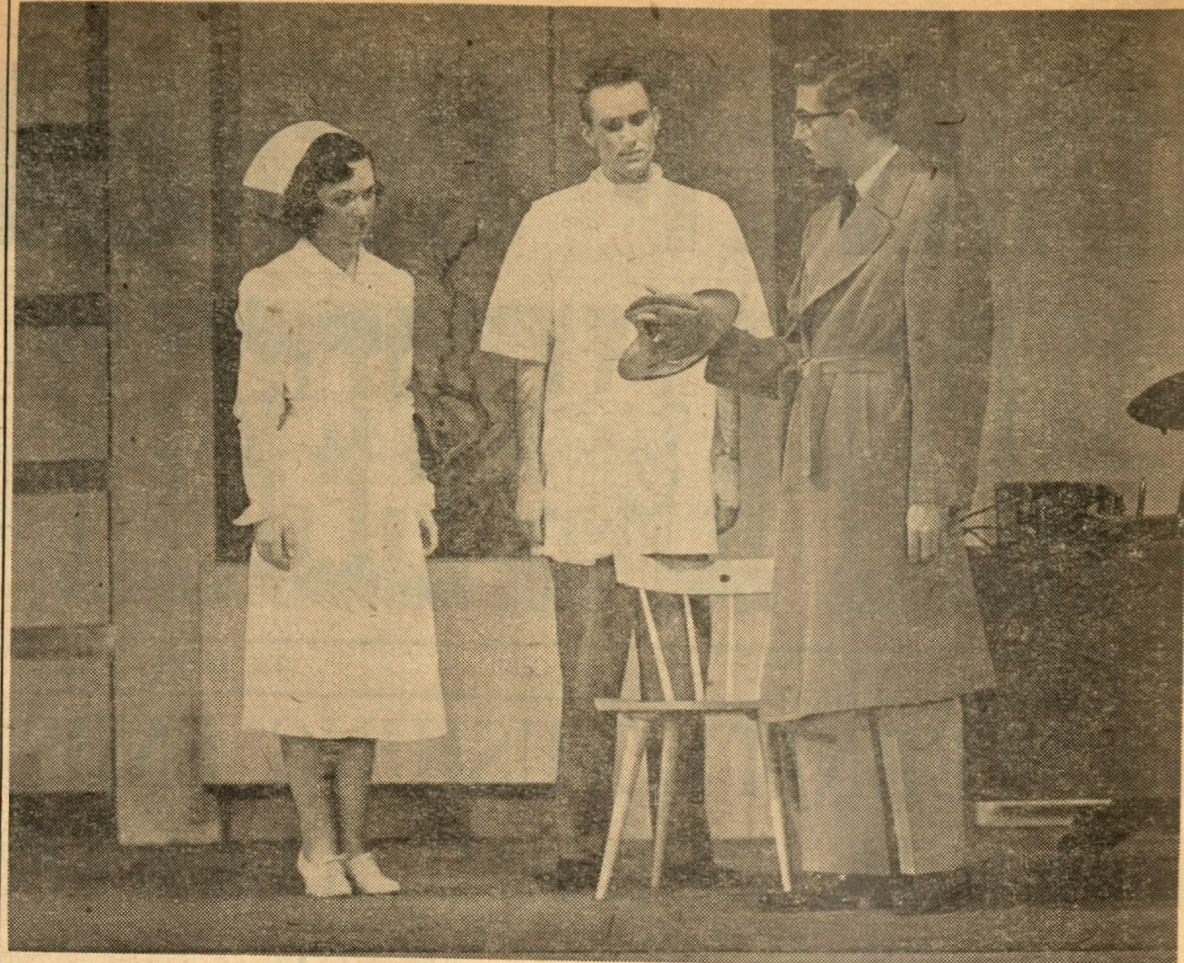

Director of the rhythmic choir is Mrs. Marjorie Sheridan of Stockton. Members of the choir are Anita Adams, Sonia Ah Tye, Fern Gonzalo, Wilma Heckenlaible, Nadine Lagorio, Peggy Linville and Mary Madrona. Julie De Vecchio will be the dance soloist.

Vocal soloists will be Dorothy Lee and June Hook; George Nagata will solo on the violin. Mrs. Shirley Curtis will be the organist.

The service will begin in Morris Chapel at 7:30 P.M.

WSSF Drive to Be Considered

The World Student Service Fund's annual campus wide drive has been announced by chairman Jack Mansfield. More detailed plans on this drive will be discussed at the Council of Religious Activities meeting to be held on March 3.

"Pookah" and Friends Prove Laugh Riot In Successful "Harvey" Production

By JACK FRANCIS

Looks as though the audience will be pounding down the doors over at the Conservatory tonight when the Pacific Theater will again present "Harvey."

Take it from the Weekly: DON'T MISS IT

With Ray Fry starring as the slightly alcoholic Elwood P. Dowd, and the supporting cast roles filled with names such as Virginia Graham, Barbara Baglini, Marshall Breeden and Gene McCabe, how can a Pacific Theater production miss?

Concerning the activities of Dowd, Elwood P., and his invisible 'Pookah,' a six foot one and one-half inch rabbit, Ray Fry is, as usual, professional in his interpretation.

The plot revolves around the activities of Dowd's sister and niece who are trying to get him committed to Chumley's Rest, a near-by sanitarium.

Fry wanders in and out, around and over the plot, with the most disconcerting questions possible. Don't miss his "What did you have in mind?"

Dorothy Fischer must have practiced days on her stage mannerisms, for they are good! And then of course, Virginia Graham, Jenny girl, in all the plays this reporter has seen, you've been merely terrific. What's a better adjective? We've run out.

Marshall Breeden is due for a few plaudits, for his version of Wilson, the sanitarium attendant. Bashing through doors and searching for Harvey, he saves more than one scene.

In fact all the characters were well played. The only sympathy we can offer is to Dorothy Blais and Ted Smalley. Sorry, students, you just didn't have much to work with. Tough luck.

Anthony Reid sets were up to the usual par, perfect. The subtle touches that mark a DeMarcus Brown production were also evident.

All in all, let me repeat, Don't miss it! It will be presented again tonight and tomorrow night. Curtain time 8:30, Pacific Conservatory.

Student Affairs Committee Meets

The Student Affairs Committee was called to order on February 9, by Don Jessup, President.

Most important on the agenda was the subject of the coming P.S.A. elections. Janet Duncan is chairman, and the following dates have been set: April 20 through 30th, petitions may be filed; April 30th, election assembly; April 29th, posters may be put up; May 11th, 12th, Monday and Tuesday, Primary and final elections. The group is trying to urge a heated campaign this year.

Lloyd Homer, who is looking into the telephone situation in the dorms, reported that South Hall is going to pay an additional $1.00 in order to have another phone.

Merle Spenser was delegated to see Mr. Blair about putting up more of the much needed lights on campus.

The subject was brought up concerning the loaning of student body cards. It was explained that the cards must be non-transferable, otherwise the school would lose a great deal of money. As a means for alleviating the loaning of P.S.A. cards it was suggested that the possibility of having pictures put on the cards be looked into.

Two letters were read from students complaining about Anderson Y being closed. The administration had it closed because of the cost of upkeep. A committee is going to look into the matter; possibly, students might take care of it.

Fry's "A Sleep of Prisoners" To Be Chapel Product.

The Pacific Theatre has announced that Christopher Fry's drama, "A Sleep of Prisoners," the spring chapel production, will play on March 24, 25 and 26 in the chapel at 8:00 P.M.

The cast will feature Anthony Reid, Ray Fry, Lawrence Berscheid and Will Cluff, and will be directed by William Sibley, senior drama student.

Christopher Fry, author of the popular "The Lady's Not for Burning," was introduced to Pacific last spring with his comedy "Phoenix Too Frequent."

"A Sleep of Prisoners," a drama about four prisoners of war who are locked in a church concerns a murder attempted on one of the men. In the succeeding dream sequences, each prisoner sees the attempted murder in the form of a Biblical story.

This production marks the return of Anthony Reid to the Pacific stage. Reid is now technical director at the Pacific theatre.

Ray Fry has been prominent in all the major theatre productions this year and is currently playing Harvey's best friend in the present P.T. offering.

Larry Berscheid has been in the last two upstairs shows and is presently on tour with a children's theatre production.

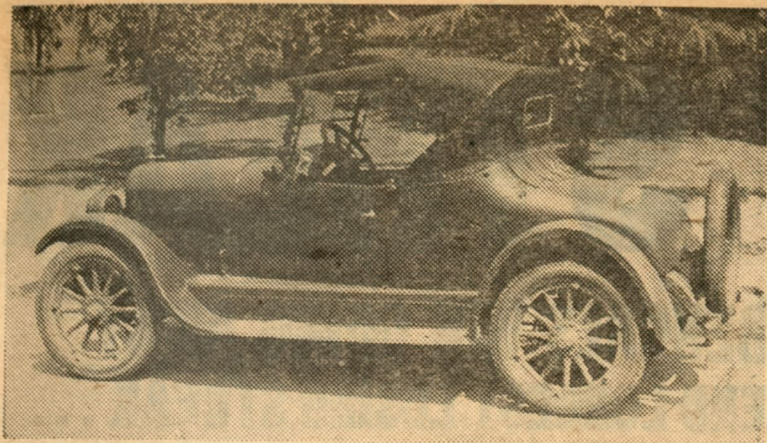

Will Cluff also has appeared in many theatre productions, the last being "Much Ado About Nothing."

The crew for the play is as follows: Art Dull, stage manager; Fred Hutchinson, electrician; Ray Salisbury, librarian; Claudia Borello, wardrobes; Judy Allen, secretary; Coralita Carlson and Frances Pini, sound.

There will be no admission charged for the productions, but a collection will be taken to defray expenses.

"Conservation can be made eternal only through our diligence in training our youth in the practice of its principles while there is still time." — N. R. Casillo in Outdoor Life.

Drag Strips To Standardize Under New NHRA Regulations

Drag strips, those post-war hot rod phenomena so instrumental in reducing the teenage driving problems in many major cities, will be the subject of a nation-wide drive for standardization by the National Hot Rod Association.

Following an extensive study of rules and regulations of the largest and most successful drag strips in the country, the Association in conjunction with Hot Rod Magazine has drawn up a workable plan for the operation of drag strips leading to a national championship drag meet.

The entire issue is devoted to drag racing, sponsorship of drag meets by the local police departments, the nation's top drag hot rods, and hot rod clubs. Included is San Diego's Paradise Drag Strip, the Colorado Springs Cam Wonders and Colorado Timing Association, the Newburyport Cam Snappers, the Topeka Drag-Ons and Timers.

NHRA safety regulations recommended for drag strips include (A) keep spectators away from all danger areas, (B) use a strip with minimum dimensions of six-tenths of a mile in length, (C) use a course that is exactly one-quarter of a mile from starting line to finish line, (D) use all standing starts, (E) use an elapsed time method of speed determination, (F) use a timing track that is exactly 132 feet in length contained within a quarter-mile course, and (G) allow only two vehicles on the course at any one time.

Recommended safety regulations for hot rods include inspection of (1) all lug nuts and cotter pins in axles and wheels, (2) shock absorbers, (3) brakes, (4) steering linkage, and (5) roll bars; and the installation of (1) adequate fire walls, (2) adequate belly pans, (3) CAA approved safety belts, (4) a fire extinguisher, (5) fuel shut-off valves, (6) securely fastened hoods, (7) ignition switches, (8) foot throttles, and (9) safety tires.

AE Rho Sponsors Coast Radio Workshop

Initiating a first in West Coast student conferences, COP members of Alpha Epsilon Rho, the national radio fraternity, will sponsor a workshop for radio students in other colleges on Saturday, February 14.

COP, fortunate in having the most complete college radio set-up on the coast, has invited five other college radio groups to put their theories to practice on its facilities. A E Rho members will prepare scripts for the following broadcasting activities which will then be taken over by the visiting groups: drama, special events, newscasting, and control board operations.

Students from KZSC at Stanford, KCSC at Chico State, KRJC at Modesto Junior College, the Radio-T.V. Guild at San Francisco State, and Napa Junior College will be able to listen to their efforts on tape at COP station KCVN that afternoon.

After an evening banquet in the dining hall A E Rho will take their guests to the second production of Pacific Theatre's "Harvey."

AWS Spring Formal Slated At Officer's Club February 28

The annual AWS spring formal will be held this year at the Officers' Club on February 28, from 9:00 to 1:00.

Co-chairmen of the dance are Ursula Herrick and Jeanette Olson. These living groups have been put in charge of the individual committees: Mu Zeta, chaperones; Epsilon, bids; Alpha Thete, refreshments; South Hall, decorations; West Hall, publicity.

RUGBY EXHIBITION GIVEN FOR BENEFIT OF C.O.P.

Winged O - Stanford Show Us How!

By BUZZ KAHN

In a special exhibition of rugby the participants from College of the Pacific were introduced to the English form of football.

The Stanford University and San Francisco Olympic Club teams made a special trip to Stockton to put on a free demonstration to C.O.P. officials and players alike.

The contest was played at Oak Park and about 550 fans witnessed an 8-6 victory by Stanford over the Olympic Clubbers in a regulation game. A preliminary demonstration of rugby techniques was given by members of the rival squads.

PACIFIC IN LEAGUE

College of the Pacific forms the seventh member of a league which includes the University of California, Petaluma, the Palo Alto Ramblers, University of San Francisco, and the Athens Club of Oakland.

Jerry Kirsten, COP Athletic Director, has the ball, a tentative schedule, and 20 good prospects, but C.O.P.'s erstwhile rugby team, like the football team, has no coach.

ANYBODY SEEN A COACH?

Joe Vigna, prospective mentor, had to relinquish the position because of other obligations; but Kirsten wants it known that Pacific will definitely field a team, and all interested persons are urged to sign up in his office in the gym.

WANNA PLAY?

Besides the requirement of some brawn, rugby also entails the skills of soccer. This sheds light on the fact that quite a few of the Monday morning armchair quarterbacks should get out on the field and strut some of their stuff. Intramural athletes take note!

PACIFIC DROPS 17th Spartan Jinx Again

The Pacific Tigers continued their losing ways Feb. 13th as they were downed by a powerful San Jose Spartan team on the winners' hardwood. The win pushed the Spartans into a third place tie with St. Mary's and left the Tigers high and dry in the cellar of the C.B.A.

TOO MUCH

It was simply a case of too much height combined with the phenomenally long shooting of Spartan Lee Jensen. It was Jensen's 10 point outburst from the start that put the Bengals behind where they could never catch up. The only shining light on the Tiger side of the scorebook was the form of fast-improving Ken Buck. The lanky center shoved 21 points through the hoops and played a fine floor game along with teammate Ed Kahn.

JINX TO GINO

The game, played on Friday the 13th proved to be a real jinx to "Gino" Sosnick as the little point producer was held to 7 points.

BENGALS WIN GOING AWAY END LONGEST LOSING STREAK ... Sosnick, Buck Hit for 25 and 21 Points

By "CECE" CIATTI

The drought has ended College of the Pacific's basketball team finally had its thirst for a win quenched last Saturday night as it put together a 76 to 53 win over the California Aggies at Davis. The win was the second for the Tigers in 18 outings, and climaxed the longest losing streak in Pacific's history.

Coach Van Sweet's five got red hot in the second half after leading by only 32-31 at the intermission. With Harland Berndt and Ed "Buzzy" Kahn controlling both backboards, the Bengals began the pull away as big Ken Buck, "Gino" Sosnick and "Peanuts" Streeter started their rampage on the basket. During the second half of play the local hoopsters hit on an amazing 60.7 per cent of their field goal tries.

STREETER STARTS IT

Jerry Streeter moved the Stocktonians out in front for keeps in the third quarter and he hit eight consecutive points to make the score 55-29. From there Sosnick and Buck had things pretty much their way as they came through with 25 and 21 points respectively.

The second half also proved that the Pacifics could play good defensive ball too, as they held the home-court Aggies to 22 points.

The Tigers and their coach deserve a lot of credit for proving that they have an attitude of not quitting when the going gets tough. For it's easy to keep wanting to play when you're winning regularly but it takes something more than that to keep having the will to win when you're on the losing side.

Winter Carnival At Univ. of Nevada Opens Feb. 20, Competition Fierce As Ski Teams Compete From 13 Colleges

By RON LEINEKE

One of the biggest invitational collegiate ski meets in the West gets underway Friday, February 20, with the opening of the fourteenth annual University of Nevada winter carnival at Mt. Rose Bowl where 13 outstanding ski teams, representing western colleges and universities, will vie for honors.

Back again to defend the carnival title they annexed last winter will be the excellent Denver University Pioneers, 1952 college ski champions, led again by brilliant Marvin Crawford, probably the outstanding four-event performer in the nation this year.

Rounding out the roster of teams competing will be the University of Washington, Oregon State, Portland University, Utah, College of Pacific, California, UCLA, Stanford, Colorado, and San Jose. Twelve of the invited 15, including the host squad of Nevada, have already accepted. Oregon State and Modesto J.C. complete the entries.

Competition will start Feb. 20 at Mt. Rose with the downhill and cross-country events. The slalom is slated the next day, and the

Bengals Defeated By USF Dons 60-50

Wednesday night the Bengal Basketball Squad traveled to Kezar Stadium in San Francisco where they were handed another defeat by the University of San Francisco Dons, by a 60-50 score.

It was the Dons' second victory over C.O.P. and their sixth straight win in C.B.A. play. Jerry Mullen, with 16 points, was high point man for the Dons, but Pacific's little guard, Gene Sosnick, was high for the night with 19 digits.

Two weeks ago when the Dons were in Stockton they beat the Tigers by a closer 46-42 score. The Dons are now certain of at least a tie for first place in California Basketball Association play.

In the freshman game the yearlings again beat the Pacific frosh by a 55-40 score. "Cece" Ciatti was high for Pacific with 15 points.

big meet will conclude Sunday, Feb. 22 with jumping at Galens Creek.

Open houses will be held by the sororities on Friday night as a prelude to the Saturday games.

... the TIGER'S DEN

By NORM HARRIS

RAH-RAH!!

One of the most heartening things we've heard recently is the resumption of noise at the Tiger's home basketball games. Noise might be classified as an unwanted, obnoxious occurrence in many places (movies, library, foyer of South Hall) but at a Pacific sporting event noise or "school spirit" is a must.

In past years College of the Pacific, although a small school, was noted for its exuberance at Student body events. The athletes, whether in a winning or losing streak, could always count on full support of the student body, something that has been lacking recently.

A big share of credit for the uplift in Pacific's "rootin'" section goes to the ever popular Tom McCormick. Tom has been the leading Tiger noise maker at C.O.P.'s games. We understand there is a movement afoot to officially appoint "Mac" as Yell Leader. In our opinion Tom is a personification of "spirit, noise, and student support."

In the last couple of years here at Pacific there seems to have been an ever-settling amount of "sophistication" in the rooting sections at practically all events.

Two exceptions to this, were the basketballers recent home game with U.S.F. and the Cal-C.O.P. football game of last season. Both times you could actually feel the support of the students though the spontaneousness of their reactions.

We hope that Mac's efforts have awakened the Student Body to the fact that they are a student body and that there is a use for spontaneous "spirit" at Tigerville.

BEEN THINKING MUCH

On everybody's mind lately is the topic, "Who's gonna be the new Coach?" The gamut of speculation has run from "Bear Bryant of Kentucky and Howie Odell, recently of University of Washington vintage to Ralph MaGoo of Milipitas J.C. fame.

We kind of suspect that Jack "Moose" Myers, recent backfield coach at Tigerland now playing for the L. A. Rams, and former coach Larry Siemerling, although he denies it, are right in the running also.

"Moose" has strong Southern Cal support while Siemerling also has strong support (athletic?)

Results of this afternoon's Athletic Board meeting will probably make this column dated in a hurry so let's say "We Tried."

HAVE YOU HEARD?

Ray "Bulb Bottom" White, former Tiger baseball star, has just won the Ping-Pong Championship at the Coast Guard base in Connecticut in which he is stationed. He was also the high scorer on the base's championship division basketball team.

Craig "Sparrow" Saevy, former Intramural Great, is currently stationed at Fort Sill, Oklahoma, where he is diligently instructing high-ranking officers in the finer points of volley balling.

Lee Tucker, ex-raquetteer from Tigerville, now holds the noon time shuffle-board championship in the local Fibreboard plant where he is an up and coming sales trainee.

George Moscone, former Pacific Cager is now working in San Francisco . . . (And that's enough to end any column.)

Bengal Tracksters Prep for '53 Season

By TED TISS

A nucleus of only 4 returning lettermen: Bob Hudson, Bob Wall, Phil Wogaman, Herb Robinson, and Ron Leineke, will be counted on quite heavily to help carry Coach Earl Jackson's Pacific Track through the '53 season. Aiding assistance to the returning lettermen are Ennis McDaniel in the discus, who is stepping into the shoes of last year's school record holder Bob Jones. Also in the grunt and heave division is Fred Miller in the discus, and Lowell Herbert putting the shot.

RETURNEES

In the high jump is returning letterman Phil Wogaman, who will also do his turn in the broad jump. Wogaman's best broad jump last year was 21 ft. 7½". Pole vault duties will be held down by Buzz Williams.

In the running events Bob Hudson will sparkle with style in the 220 and 100 yard dash. Hudson's best time last year in the 220 was 21.2 and 9.8 was put down as Hudson's best time in the 100. Last year's most improved runner, Ron Leineke, will again put his hurdling talents to use this year. Leineke's best time for the hurdles last year was 15.2.

Capable Herb Robinson will also lend his ability in the hurdles. MORE TALENT??

The quarter-mile spot is to be held down by Ed Griffith. Dave Wolf will also lend his efforts in the distance races. Coach Jackson is hopeful to uncover some talent in the interclass and intermural track meets March 12-13 and March 19-20 in some of the spots which need extra men.

Tigers Hit Big City Meet Hot SF State

Tonight the C.O.P. basketballers travel to San Francisco to engage San Francisco State Gators on the Gators home court. State is a fast-breaking team with one of the best records in the Bay area. The 'Gators have won 19 and lost 7.

At the beginning of the season Coach Dan Farmer offered a trophy to any team that could beat his San Francisco team twice. Since then it has cost Farmer three trophies. Sacramento State, San Jose State, and the University of Nevada have all beaten the 'Gators twice. Incidentally these teams have all beaten C.O.P. twice also.

The Staters have also offered their hospitality on the dance floor as the Tigers rooters and players have been invited to a dance after the game.

Sam Speaks Again . . .

Sam, the Basket-Weaving major was sitting in his usual place, behind the Juke-box in the End Zone, holding forth on the foibles of man, or woman, depending on which was passing at the moment.

"Of course", said Sam, "you realize that I'm in favor of the campus remaining in its rather romantic semi-darkness. After all, it's getting tougher and tougher to find a nice dark spot in this city."

Jake, Sam's fellow conspirator in the custom of coffee drinking, replies:

"But don't you think the school might put a few additional lights around the campus? Or even bigger bulbs in the ones they have for a starter?"

"Nah", said Sam, "Why destroy the tradition of the dimly lit Ivy covered walls? This modern stuff is for the birds". "Yah, I guess you're right," said Jake.

Senate Discusses Campus Lights

Better lighting facilities on campus may be forthcoming because of a recent meeting of members of the Student Affairs Committee with members of the administration. Don Jessup announced at the Senate meeting last Wednesday evening.

The lighting situation has been the topic for campus wide discussion for some time and this step promises to offer some advance towards a solution to the need for more adequate lighting facilities.

The Student Affairs Committee, also in charge of elections, has set the date for the election of Pacific Student Association officers for next year. Sign-up for offices will begin April 20 and will continue until April 30. Posters will be in evidence beginning April 29 when campaigning swings into action. Following the first day of campaigning, the Election Assembly will be held, at which time the members of the student body will be able to become better acquainted with those running for offices. May 11 and 12 the primary and final elections will be held.

The Senate named Jim Cox and Phil Flock co-chairmen of Pacific's 1953 Mardi Gras.

In two other appointments, the Senate selected Tom McCormick and Lloyd Homer as cheerleaders to replace Dick McNally and Paul Maritsas who are no longer enrolled at C.O.P.

Jose Gonzalez, who served as Assistant Business Manager for the Weekly last semester, was officially appointed to the position of Business Manager.

Letters To The Editor . . .

TO COLLEGE PROFESSORS: Think. Are you guilty of the following practices?

1. Pregrade a student the first day he takes the course.
2. Study a student's previous record to grade him in your course.
3. Let a student's family background and social position influence your grade.
4. Uphold an unfair professor's conduct to keep your job.

These criticisms are not directed toward the many fair dealing, honest professors at COP, but to a small minority of professors not living up to their trust.

Annual Central Circus Feb. 28th

Central Methodist Church presents CENTRAL CIRCUS on February 28, 3:00 to 9:00 in the church social hall.

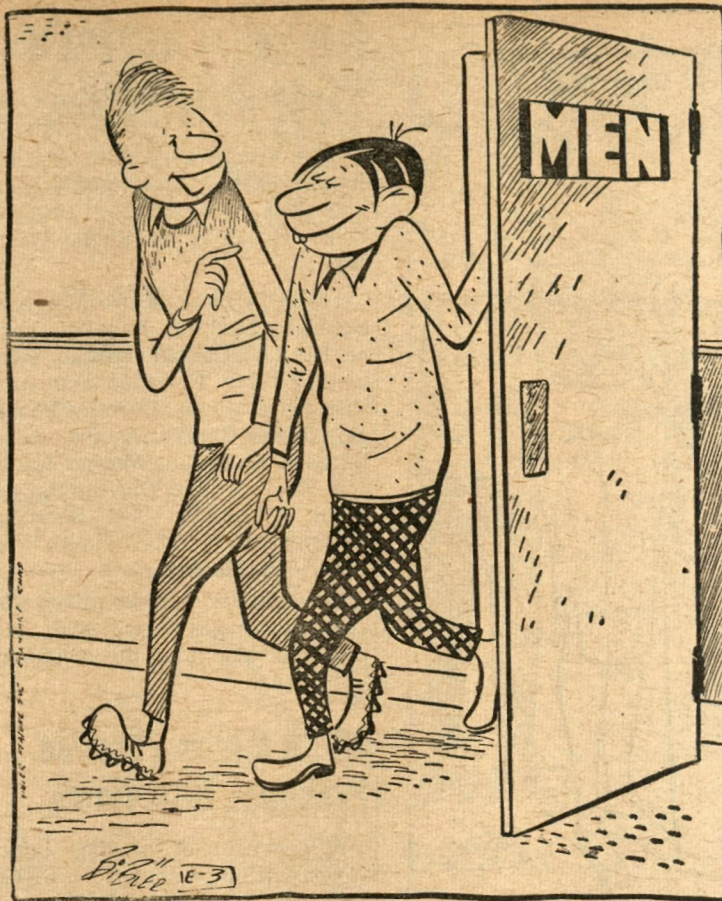

This is an annual affair presented by the various groups of Central Methodist Church.

This year the college group, consisting of numerous COP students, is in charge of four booths, ranging from penny tossing to contributing to a CARE package fund.

A wonderful time is to be had by all, so why not plan to spend an hour or so at Central Methodist for CENTRAL CIRCUS? Marilen Luke is president of the college group (C.F.W.) and Jane Barrett is chairman of the college booths.
