My dear Lii,

It is with great regret that I find myself obliged to give up my proposed visit to you. When you come to travel with Mrs. M. I am much mistaken if you don't find it requires much more power to get up an equal momentum, such as is required for packing, getting bonnets safely stowed etc. Mrs. D. must start East with me, and my own dunnage being disposed of, I have now to look after hers, consequently can't move. We leave for the East (via Stockton) train of Dec 12. yours very truly
Wm. H. Dall
