C.O.P. — STOCKTON, CALIF.

May 15, 1953 — No. 25

For all those interested in working on and with the Rally Committee for the school year 1953-54, there will be a meeting in the PSA office Tuesday night May 19, at 8:00.

For those who are interested and cannot attend, please contact Jim Taylor at 2-9405 or leave a message in the PSA office.

List of PSA winners shows coming promise

A week ago yesterday, the students of COP went to the polls to vote in a run-off election for Student Body officers. Here are the results of that election and a little information concerning the winners.

The presidential run-off found Phil Wogaman, a junior pre-ministerial student defeating Kane Waggoner. Phil is also president of the CRA, a member of Phi Kappa Phi, Blue Key, and for the last year, assistant pastor of the Clay Street Methodist Church here in Stockton.

Marilyn McClure, a sophomore education major from Epsilon won the post of student body secretary from Janie Barrett.

In one of the more interesting contests for office, Archania's Al Alstrand defeated write-in campaigning Jack Francis, Pacific Weekly Editor for the position of treasurer.

In the vote battle for Social Chairman Bob "horribly ugly" Young of Omega Phi defeated Sharon Kelly of Epsilon in a very tight race.

Funny man Jim Taylor of the Archite House defeated Jack Green for the position of Rally Chairman in the run offs.

Barbara Lee Ratto, an Education Major, squeaked by T.K.'s Louetta Salsa in the closest race of the campaign. Barbara is a member of Epsilon Lambda Sigma and Omega Nu.

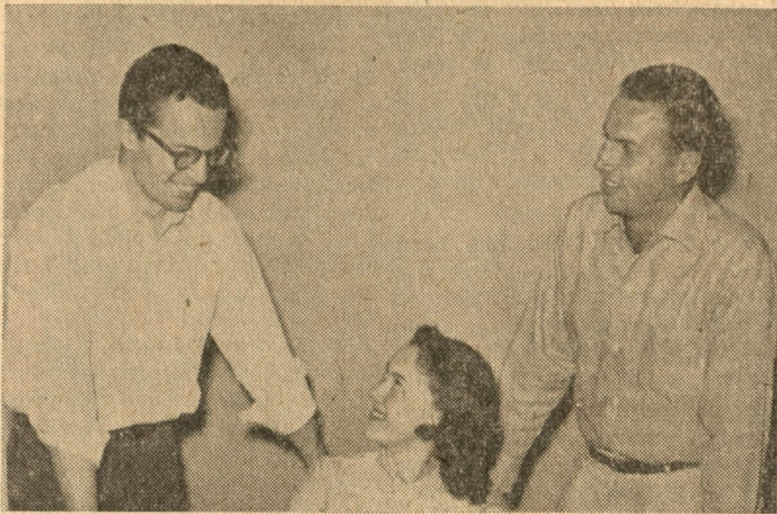

In the run offs for Junior Class representative Epsilon's Carmelita "Carmie" Castro aced out "old Smokey" Todd Clark.

The Sophomore class representative as chosen in the Final election was Carolyn Carpenter, Epsilon Pledge. Carolyn won over Allison "Ome" Tucker (The Voice).

Zeta Phi, Archania receive awards

The final President's Convocation, combining the regular convocation and the Honors Assembly, was climaxed with an address challenging student interest in the Point-Four Program, by Dr. Knowles Ryerson of the University of California, at Davis School achievements.

The final event in the recognition of scholarship was the presentation by Dr. Potter, president of Phi Kappa Phi, of the scholarship trophy. The award, given on the basis of grade-point average and improvement of scholarship, went to Zeta Phi for the women's living groups, and Alpha Kappa Phi for the men's. This is the second straight win for Zeta Phi. Last year's winner in the men's division was North Hall.

Th new PSA officers get started on their new job. Left to right they are Phil Wogaman, president; Marilyn McClure, secretary; and Norm Harris, vice president. Al Alstrand, treasurer, was unable to attend this meeting.

Final senate meet propose larger pool

By GEORGE FOWLER

The final meeting of the PSA Senate was highlighted by several amusing if unusual "suggestions."

It was moved by Pete Schneider that the PSA Student Body cards be raised from $15 to $515, the extra funds to be used to fill the swimming pool with Alcoholic beverages.

This "motion" was brought up after mention of statistics, which stated that the average person in the United States consumed 21.8 gallons of alcoholic beverages a year. Since the COP student body comprises 800 students, the excess funds from Student Body cards would purchase approximately 40,000 gallons. Unfortunately, however, the swimming pool will only hold 35,000 gallons, the glaring deficiency in total capacity was pointed out, and the only obvious course, that of enlarging the pool, was brought up.

The second amendment, brilliantly brought up by the present junior representative, was to the effect that the heating of the pool be raised to the top temperature of 80 degrees, from the present 60. (We can only assume from this that his taste runs primarily to Hot Toddys.)

About this time the administration brought its power to bear on the matter. Dean Betz generously volunteered to be life guard (for free), and Dean Monroe submitted that the pool be named 'High-Dive Inn', and that the street be rechristened "Stagger Lane."

Your humble chronicler and the PACIFIC WEEKLY hereby wish it to be known that we back this enterprise to the last man or woman (as the case may be).

It must be pointed out in conclusion, however that the above, unfortunately, was used merely as an example in Parliamentary procedure, for the benefit of incoming members.

Parents shown campus last Saturday at COP

The Second Annual Parents Day was held May 9, beginning with registration at 1:00 and ending with the final curtain of "Good News".

Dr. Robert E. Burns welcomed parents and visitors at an assembly in the Conservatory following registration. The A Cappella Choir sang and a panel discussed what the College of the Pacific offers. Members on the panel were Miss Harriett Monroe, Ursula Herrick, Phil Wogaman, Bob Steres, Dean Edward S. Betz, and Dean Lloyd Bertholf.

Following the assembly, the audience went to Anderson Social Hall for coffee and then adjourned outside for the Band Concert. Guided tours of the campus, open house at the living groups, dinner, and "Good News" completed the program of the day.

A total of over 300 parents were formally registered; twice as many attended as last year.

Speech trainees spend day at school of deaf

C.O.P. audiology students and Miss Loida Farrow, instructor, visited the California School for the Deaf in Berkeley last week.

Class members, learning about hearing impairments, deafness and hearing testing, had an excellent opportunity to view the areas in practice as well as theory.

At the school, a supervising teacher showed them primary classes through high school seniors at study.

The California School has a beautiful, modern school with every up-to-date facility. Students live and board at the school, are well-counseled. The smaller children lead active, normal lives, with plenty of play. The high school division compares with any other high school. Students have sports leagues, dances and enjoy other types of recreation. The school specializes in extensive vocational training.

Appointive offices in PSA government still available to desiring students

Pacific students who would like a chance to serve in the student government next year and do not as yet have an office, are now being given a chance to apply for one of the PSA appointive offices.

Members of the new executive committee are now ready to consider applicants to fill the posts of drives commissioner, student affairs commissioner, publications commissioner and graduate representative. In addition to these offices which are set up by the constitution, each member of the "ex" committee is interested in having at least one assistant appointed to help with that particular phase of the PSA work.

Requirements for these offices are as follows: All appointees must have a 1.00 G.P.A. and must be a regular member of the PSA. The student affairs commissioner and publications commissioner must be seniors during their term in office; the graduate representative must be a graduate student during his term in office.

Duties of the previously listed offices: commissioner of drives — serve as a member of the Senate and be responsible for planning and executing all drive programs on the campus during the year; student affairs commissioner — supervise PSA elections, serve as a link between individuals and the government and form a permanent campus-wide committee that meets regularly to discuss student problems; publications commissioner — supervise all PSA publications and appoint the editors and business managers of the publications; graduate representative — effectively represent graduate students and take on special duties as assigned by the Senate.

There are many posts to be filled as the Senate is forming new standing committees in addition to above mentioned offices. PSA President elect, Phil Wogaman urges that all interested students file applications with one of the "ex" committee members so that the best possible person may be found for each vacancy.

Advance registration For fall-summer soon

Students currently enrolled at Pacific may register in advance for the fall semester of 1953-54, and/or for the first summer session of 1953, during the dates May 14 through May 20.

Tuition charges are payable at the time of advance registration, or on September 14 and 15. For those wishing to use the deferred payment plan, four drafts may be signed covering the tuition charges. These amount to one third down and the balance in three equal payments due October 1, November 1, and December 1, 1953. Students must report to the Business Office on September 14 or 15 to complete final financial arrangements.

Students enrolling in advance for the first Summer Session will be expected to pay half the tuition at the time of advance registration and the remainder on June 22 or 23.

PSA OFFICERS LEAVE ON TRIP

Geoff Thomas, PSA President, Phil Wogaman, President elect, and Norm Harris Veep Elect, departed by plane last Tuesday for the annual PSPA Convention in Tucson, Arizona. Their destination was the University of Arizona for a 3-day parley involving colleges and universities of eleven western states, Hawaii, British Columbia and Mexico.

The Pacific Student Presidents Association conference has been established so that old and new Student Body presidents will be able to exchange ideas.

SEASON TICKET DRIVE CONCLUDED

Last night the Pacific Student Association, en masse, completed one of the semesters most important of all campus functions, The Football Season's Ticket Sale's Campaign.

Geoff Thomas and Jim Taylor were the co-chairman on the student level with Ed Zuchelli and Jerry Kirsten of the Athletic Department lending a helping hand.

Over the past two weeks enthusiasm grew, as different individuals, off campus groups, and living organizations carried the campaign to Lodi, Manteca, Tracy, and the Mother Lode.

Last Thursday night Archania and Epsilon staged a joint campaign door to dooring it here in Stockton.

Wednesday night, Radio Pacific placed its entire facilities at the disposal of the ticket salesmen and broadcast its Wednesday 9 — 9:30 "Coffee Time" Show from the End Zone with "sell those seats" as the show theme.

The biggest push was last night, the culminating drive of the affair. The students gathered for the rally and then carried the campaign to the people of Stockton.

As the evening drew to a close the student's filtered back to the End Zone where Thomas and Taylor kept a running score of the sales progress. Ed Zuchelli provided a pep band and a running commentary of quips to the tired ticket seller's delight.

All in all, the campaign was planned to help the athletic program and came in strong to bolster next year's budget.

Junior-Senior ball has starlight theme

"Starlite Serenade," the name of the Junior-Senior Ball this year, will be held in the Officers' Club tonight. The annual dance is formal and the theme will be carrying out the name of the Ball. Bids for the dance will be one dollar.

General Chairman for the dance is Don Cunningham. The bids are under the direction of Georgia Friz. Rod Hines is chairman of the music committee. The publicity for the Ball is being handled by Luellen Rountree.

The orchestra will be Rod Hines Orchestra, the leader being a member of Archania fraternity on campus.

The Officers Club has been newly decorated throughout and is now under new management. The new decorations of the room will undoubtedly add to the dance.

It is stressed that junior and senior girls who are not interested in inviting another Junior or senior may ask men who are not in these classes.

Officer: "You interested in a commission?"

Recruit: "No, I'm not too good a shot. I'd rather work on a straight salary."

Women's Association officers installed

Marking the close of a successful year, members of the Associated Women Students gathered last night for their annual banquet, held in the Anderson dining hall. Jeanne Lane acted as mistress of ceremonies; guests included Dr. and Mrs. Burns, Mrs. Tully Knoles, Dean Monroe, and Mrs. Borrer and Mrs. Herrick, mothers of the outgoing and incoming A.W.S. presidents, respectively.

Following the final meeting, which included the announcement of the four senior women awarded life memberships in the American Association of University Women, the Outstanding Senior Woman, and tapping by the Spurs and Knolens, the members went by candlelight procession to the Chapel for the installation of new A.W.S. officers.

Installed were president, Ursula Herrick; first vice president, Betty Jo Peterson; second vice president, Barbara Fortna; secretary, Jane Barrett; treasurer, Bettie Adams; historian, Estelle Gibson; and publicity chairman, Clara Stewart.

Open-air Fleishhacker Pool in San Francisco is 100 by one thousand feet, and contains 6,500,000 gallons of water.

Chance to stuff given at breakfast

There will be strawberries and cream, biscuits, jam, and coffee — all you can eat — at the Strawberry Breakfast Sunday morning. This annual Y.W.C.A. sponsored event will be held from 8:30 to 10:30 in Sorority Circle.

Everyone is invited — students and the public. Tickets are 75¢ for students and adults and 40¢ for children. Tickets may be purchased from a living group representative at the "Y" office, or at the Breakfast.

Members of the women's living groups will help with serving. Co-chairmen for the breakfast are Jenae Frane and Ctes Smith. Other committee heads are Donna Salsa and Marion Gerecke, publicity; Eloise Haldeman and Pat Monk, tickets; Coralita Carlson, strawberry preparation; Elaine Goodale, coffee; Marilyn McClure, and Doris Hitch, dishes; and Barbara Fortna, set up.

Literary meeting is held by Rhizomia

Rhizomia, the campus literary fraternity, held its annual literary meeting last Saturday in honor of parents' day.

Several members of the house provided the entertainment. Jim Pickering gave a serious reading called the "Hollow Men," which was followed by Jerry Pickering who gave a reading on the biography of a famous old Rhizite, Eugene Rhodes, a writer of short western stories. Then a musical number, "Anywhere I Wander," was sung by Bob Giardina.

Comical readings were done by Walt Leineke, who read the "Creation of Sam McGrew," and Bob McGowen, who read, "From Where I Sit."

Following this were several extemporaneous speeches. The first was offered by Bill Chapman on the subject "How to Change a Baby's Diapers." Harland Berndt spoke on "Why Girls Have Bushy Eyebrows," and Dick DeChristofaro gave a talk on "Life Painting." Dean Betz contributed to the speeches of the day by speaking on "Why Giraffes Have Long Necks."

The final number in the entertainment was a poem written and read by the Master of Ceremonies, Ron Leineke, called "Mother," which was written in honor of the housemother of Rhizomia.

Organizers of this meeting were Jack Green, Jim and Jerry Pickering, Hurb Green, and Ron Leineke.

POLITICAL ADVERTISEMENT

Dear Sir:

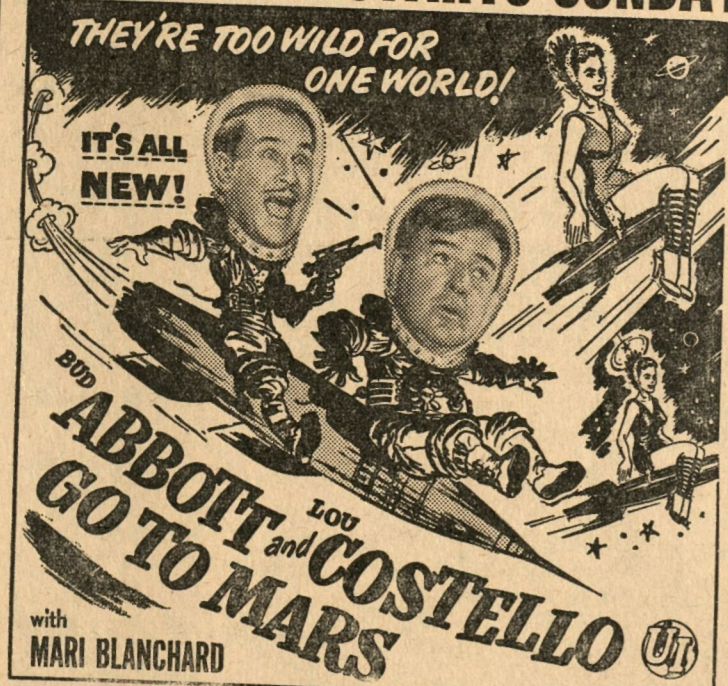

May I take this opportunity to congratulate you for your review on Good News. In my humble opinion, this review is one of the best I have seen in the Pacific Weekly since the 'Reign of Terror' instigated by Fred Tulan, editorial writer and reviewer emeritus of the PW staff. In fact, this semester's entire editions have been above average in news coverage, campus and national interest, society, and above all, in stirring editorials.

Your over-all policy is tremendous. Your astute decisions and delicate, tactful handling of personal problems indeed culminate an historical semester in the annals of Pacific journalism.

Awards assembly held Thursday

On Thursday, May 21, the annual awards assembly will be held in the conservatory. At this time awards will be made to outstanding athletes (male and female), the outstanding senior man and woman, and outstanding students in journalism, radio, drama and history.

Many living groups and organizations are attending en masse. Persons receiving two awards are being asked to remain with the first group in which they appeared.

Vets must apply for loans in advance

"Veterans who plan to seek GI loans for private lenders on homes, farms or businesses should apply to Veterans Administration regional offices in advance for certificates of eligibility," announced the Veterans Administration on May 5.

This procedure will reduce delays in processing the loan applications later, when the veteran is awaiting completion of the deal or is pressed for time to close the loan. Certificates of eligibility are proof for lenders that VA will guarantee or insure a loan if the veteran meets other usual loan requirements.

In the past, veterans have been advised to submit their discharge or separation papers to the lending institution making the loan. They, in turn, submitted them to VA on behalf of the veterans. However, since the passage of the Korean GI Bill which extends the loan guarantee benefits of the World War II Bill to Veterans with service since June 27, 1950, VA must have information not previously needed to establish eligibility.

Now, to pass on a veteran's eligibility, VA must know whether the veteran served in World War II or since the start of the Korean conflict, or both; what prior use of his loan guaranty benefits, if any, has been made; the status of any prior GI loans, and whether the veteran still owns real estate purchased with any such loans. Thus, by applying to VA offices in advance, veterans and lenders may save considerable time in processing the loan application.

VA said its local offices can quickly determine what they will require in order to pass on a veteran's eligibility. This will do away with needless correspondence and expedite issuing certificates. Most World War II veterans have until July 25, 1957 in which to apply for GI loans under the original GI Bill, but veterans with service since June 27, 1950, the beginning of the Korean conflict, have 10 years from end of the current emergency in which to apply.

AIRCRAFT OBSERVER

AIRCRAFT OBSERVER

The Brains of the Team

Teamwork can work miracles. In a football game the man who sparks these miracles is the quarterback. He's the man who calls the signals. There's a man who calls the signals for an Air Force flying team, too!

They call him an Aircraft Observer.

Do YOU have what it takes to become an Aircraft Observer?

It isn't easy. It's tough. You have to be a MAN to qualify as an Aircraft Observer. But when you are one, brother, you're SOMEBODY! The success or failure of a mission involving over a million dollars worth of flight equipment depends on you.

THE AIRCRAFT OBSERVER IS THE SOMEBODY WHO:

As Bombardment Officer, is number one man on a bombing run, the man who controls the plane in the target area!

As Navigation Officer, is the pilot's guiding hand on every flight!

As Radar Officer, is master of a new science and operator of the device that sees beyond human sight!

As Aircraft Performance Engineer Officer, is the one who "keeps the plane flying", the man who knows his plane inside and out, who keeps it fit for the skies and sees that it stays there!

If YOU can accept a challenge like this, you'll take your beside the best—you'll find your future in the clouds!

TO BE QUALIFIED you must be single, a citizen, between 19 and 26½ years old, have had at least 2 years of college and be in tip top physical shape. If this describes you, then YOU, too, can qualify. Today!

HERE'S WHAT YOU'LL GET! The world's best training. Good food and plenty of it. Uniforms, flight clothes, equipment. Medical and dental care. Free insurance. Flight training in Uncle Sam's greatest aircraft.

AND THEN, AFTER GRADUATION, you'll win your silver wings, and earn more than $5000 a year as an Air Force Lieutenant. You'll enjoy an adventurous, exciting career with a hand-picked crew of real men. You'll be THE BRAINS OF THE TEAM, A TRIPLE THREAT MAN... as a Bombardment Officer, as a Navigation Officer, as a Radar Officer, as an Aircraft Performance Engineer.

Omega Phi grabs 'mural crowns

Last week, behind the brilliant no-hit pitching of Jim Broderick and Moose Borges, Omega Phi smothered North Hall in a 12-hit, 19 to 1 softball shellacking. Broderick chucked the first five innings, displaying a wide variety of curves, drops, screwballs, and a fast ball that whistled 'Dixie' as it blazed over the plate.

With the contest obviously no-contest in the fifth, Moose Borges was called upon to show his stuff and it was pretty good as he allowed no hits and struck out four batters, and threw one wild pitch.

Leading the Foos at the plate was Bud Hurst who hit a towering home run and a slashing double to drive in seven runs. Prexy Dale Clipper also hit well with 2 for 3.

Final League Standings

P.E. fraternity at Pacific

The Alpha Sigma Chapter of Phi Epsilon Kappa, National Professional Physical Education Fraternity, was installed last Friday night by a team of men representing the fraternity.

They were: Mr. Ben W. Miller, District Counselor, who is Director of P. E. at U.C.L.A., Mr. Carl E. Klafs, National Vice President, and local members of the fraternity, Dr. Carl Voltmer, faculty sponsor, Dr. Walter S. Knox, Administrative Director, Mr. Charles Trowbridge of Stockton College, and Coach Jack Myers.

The former name of the fraternity was the C.O.P. Physical Education Club.

The purposes of the Fraternity are to elevate the standards, ideals and ethics of the profession, to afford mutual aid and inspiration to men in this work, and to promote the social life of its members.

Those initiated into the Fraternity were, Harland Berndt, Jack Chappell, Matthew Equinoa, Dick Gorman, Edward Kahn, Art Liebscher, Boyd Mickley, Bruce Nelson, Jim Powell, Jerry Streeter, Charles Washington, and Gene Wellman.

In the election that followed Edward 'Buzz' Kahn was elected President; Matt Equinoa, Vice President; Charles Washington, Secretary; Jack Chappell, Treasurer; Bruce Nelson, Sergeant-at-Arms; Jerry Streeter, Guide; and Dick Gorman, Recorder-Historian.

GRIDDERS DISPLAY WARES IN INTRASQUAD TILT TOMORROW

Fifty-three candidates for the 1953 version of the Tiger varsity football team will take part in an intrasquad game tomorrow evening at 7:30, in Pacific's Memorial Stadium. The termination of athletic day and the first three weeks of spring practice will display the material with which Jack "Moose" Myers, fifth full time head football coach at C.O.P., will face his rugged fall schedule. The power-studded slate includes Washington State, Tulsa U., Univ. of Hawaii, Fresno State, Utah State, Stanford, Texas Tech, Marquette, San Jose, and Univ. of Idaho.

Senior Art Liebscher, switched from fullback to left half, is looked to for a major portion of the running lead. In 1952, Liebscher carried 103 times for 535 yards and a 5.2 average.

Returning to the line are lettermen Ken Buck, Ed Griffith, Gene Wellman, Cecil Harp and Jerry Smith at ends; Dub Doshier, Larry French, Charlie Washington, Duane Blackwell, and Dan Nunez at tackles; and Lowell Herbert and Jim Timms at guards. Lanky Ken Buck, from Paso Robles, set a new all-time Pacific pass receiving record last year at end.

In the contest tomorrow night,

Myers is undecided as to his starting line up, due to injuries by former scrimmage starters. In the ball handling departments it will probably be Tivio at quarterback, Liebscher at left half, Flock at right half, Richardson at full back, and Griffith and Harp at ends for the "Blacks." Whites will find Ottoson at quarterback, Fallon at left half, Conover at right half, Leonard at full back and Buck and Wellman at ends.

Intramural swim meet May 20-21

The Intramural swimming meet will be held on Wednesday and Thursday, May 20 and 21. Last year's winners, the Halibuts, are gunning for another victory but they will have strong competition from Rhizomia and Omega Phi, last year's second and third place teams respectively.

Going after their second wins will be Rod Swift, Bill Lawton, Herb Robinson, and Jack Green of Rhizomia and Jim Baun, 'Buzz' Kahn, Norm Harris and Bob Spiekerman of Omega Phi. Jim Taylor, of Archania, will be the probable favorite in the 200 yard breast stroke.

A good turnout of both swimmers and spectators is expected at the Intramural swimming meet on May 20 and 21.
