My Dear Mr. Muir,

A day or two since I saw, by the papers, that you will favor us again this winter with one of your delightful lectures, so I write to remind you that I shall hope to have you with us on that occasion and also to beg you to present me most kindly to Mrs. Muir and say I should be very glad if she would come up with you and pay me a visit.

Cordially Yours
Eliza W. C. Hartley
