Fort W. Vogel, Alaska. March 7. 1894.

Dear Friend Muir,

Another fine specimen of glacial mud is on exhibition at our house. We call it our Margaret Alaska which is being interpreted you know the Alaska Pearl a fitting name for this bivalveous coast. Feb. 27 is the date. Yours of Dec. 17. has just arrived which is the latest word received from you. A glacial letter later.

Yours L. Hall Young.
