

1881-04-08

Letter from John Bidwell to John Muir, 1881 Apr 8.

John Bidwell

Follow this and additional works at: <https://scholarlycommons.pacific.edu/muir-correspondence>

Recommended Citation

Bidwell, John, "Letter from John Bidwell to John Muir, 1881 Apr 8." (1881). John Muir Correspondence (PDFs). 624.

<https://scholarlycommons.pacific.edu/muir-correspondence/624>

This Article is brought to you for free and open access by the John Muir Correspondence 1856-1914 at Scholarly Commons. It has been accepted for inclusion in John Muir Correspondence (PDFs) by an authorized administrator of Scholarly Commons. For more information, please contact mgibney@pacific.edu.

Rancho Chico,
April 8, 1881.

My Dear Muir,

When in San F. early in last month I inquired of Mr Upham about you, not knowing whether you had already migrated towards the Sierras, or Alaskan glaciers and ice-bergs, or were still hibernating in less frigid climes. Upham gave me some surmises which, when in Martinez a few days subsequently, caused me to inquire for you, but not to dare a nearer approach to the sacred precincts even if I had time, which I had not.

We have often mentioned you and mixed possibilities and wishes and probabilities, and among them most prominent a visit from you and your other self. But!!! from reliable information we do not now expect you both - all, I should say - quite so soon! but when will it be? Please do not delay too long. You have our sincere congratulations. But look out, when spring opens, it may take flight. Watch carefully its early years, and if found missing look for it in the direction of Alaska or other thrillingly wild and beautiful region.

Till I learn more, will forbear to instruct further. So good bye, and believe me always

Very Truly Yours
John Bidwell