

John Muir Correspondence (PDFs)

1881-11-06

Letter from Walter Brown to Anna [Annie L. Muir], 1881 Nov 6.

Walter Brown

Follow this and additional works at: <https://scholarlycommons.pacific.edu/muir-correspondence>

Recommended Citation

Brown, Walter, "Letter from Walter Brown to Anna [Annie L. Muir], 1881 Nov 6." (1881). John Muir Correspondence (PDFs). 679.

<https://scholarlycommons.pacific.edu/muir-correspondence/679>

This Article is brought to you for free and open access by Scholarly Commons. It has been accepted for inclusion in John Muir Correspondence (PDFs) by an authorized administrator of Scholarly Commons. For more information, please contact mgibney@pacific.edu.

Phillips // 6-87

Dear Aunt

Your dear good letter came last Friday evening and found us as well as could be expected, Joanna is feeling stronger and better each day and with Gods help will get well very soon, Grace, she was Gods gift and is only called back to await ours coming and with Gods help we will meet her at this appointed time,

The verses which you speak of are very beautiful and are very appropriate, we shall keep them and feel very grateful for your kindness, Lillian and Mary are very Kind to us, and are here today, Joana sat up over an hour today and will perhaps try it again in the evening.

They will not be well enough so that I dare take her to Portage.
Before I must go South, our mill machinery will be on the ground the last of the month and we have lots of work to do before it arrives.

Joana asked me to get some two or three more copies of the papers having those verses in if you can cut out the notices and verses and send them to us we will be greatly obliged to you.

Write soon dear Anna,

Our love to you,

Also to Mother

Walter & J. Brown
Joana says she will write when she can