Dear Sir,

After a perusal of your Charming paper on the Beechfield of California in the June issue of the "Century," I feel constrained to intrude upon your courtesy in so far as to ask whether you can make an appointment during the day or in the evening to meet me at my house 46. East 25th St. or elsewhere as I am about leaving with some friends for California in a week and I should be exceedingly gratified at an opportunity of con-versing with you, previous to our departure.

I am,

Yours faithfully
John R. Whitley.

John Muir Esq
