Mr John Muir,

Dear sir:

You have probably heard of the revival of the Overland Magazine about to take place. I want very much to talk with you about it, and as I understand you do not come to San Francisco, I will so far intrude on you as to come to Martinez, next Monday, the 23rd. I enclose this in a note of introduction from Mr Bartlett. I am told that your home is too distant from the station for me to find my own way thither, but that there are teams going in every day, so that I shall not inconvenience anyone by writing thus that I will be at the station Monday morning on the train leaving San Francisco at 9:40.

I remain very sincerely yours,

Milicent W. Shinn
