Nov. 6, 1882.

Mr. John Muir,

Dear Sir and Kind Friend:
"That Box of Grapes"
you so kindly sent, has come to hand.

How can I sufficiently thank you for your many kindnesses?

It is not the least of my grief, that, by missing that chance to make a fortune 4 years ago; ~~that~~ I put it out of my own power (perhaps forever) to reward my faithful, generous friends as they deserve.

01081

But if God does
look down upon mortals with loving Will and power to do them good:— May He reward each and all of my friends, a thousandfold.

When you come to S.F.
do call and see me, even if it is only for 5 minutes:— and especially, if Mrs.
Huir should bring the "Baby" to town. I should very much like to see it.
My brotherly love to all

Yours truly,
John Baghall
