San Francisco, November 1882

John Muir Esq. My Dear Friend.

I delayed making an acknowledgment of note for the box of grapes, hoping to get time to run up to Martinez and thank you in person. But as I see no prospect of getting off just now, let me say that the grapes came to hand, and a new attractive assortment I never saw. The light colored leaves made them more attractive. Oh that I had a vineyard - a few acres where the everlastings, maris and dais of marketing newspapers would not be known. Some day I hope to see you and yours. How the dogs of each filled up with sweet strains and words! Thank for a reminder that there is something better than newspapers in this world Truly Your Friend Wm Bartlett.
