Dear Sir,

A short time back I read with much interest your paper on the Pine Forests of California and was much struck with the beauty of the specimens as seen by the engravings illustrating the paper.

Not having any correspondent in America

To the Editor of the Pine Forests of California
In the Century Magazine

01085

I take the liberty of writing to you to ascertain from whom I could procure of the various sorts of prices you write about

By answering this you will lay me under an obligation which I will willingly endeavour to repay on my side

Remain
Dear Sir
Yours faithfully
J. Adams
