

1883-06-29

Letter from [Ann G.Muir] to Dan [iel H. Muir], 1883 Jun 29.

Ann Gilrye Muir

Follow this and additional works at: <https://scholarlycommons.pacific.edu/muir-correspondence>

Recommended Citation

Muir, Ann Gilrye, "Letter from [Ann G.Muir] to Dan [iel H. Muir], 1883 Jun 29." (1883). John Muir Correspondence (PDFs). 755.

<https://scholarlycommons.pacific.edu/muir-correspondence/755>

This Article is brought to you for free and open access by the John Muir Correspondence 1856-1914 at Scholarly Commons. It has been accepted for inclusion in John Muir Correspondence (PDFs) by an authorized administrator of Scholarly Commons. For more information, please contact mgibney@pacific.edu.

[2]

Possibly you have heard of Mary's second boy - she seemed to progress favorably for a week - Then she had a chill, and one of her breasts gathered and broke in ten days ago, and the discharge being great, she was very weak.

Annie went to Phillips two weeks ago to lend what assistance she could - I hope by this time she is much better - 'Course scores are the order of the day -

With kindest regards to all and hoping to hear from you are long -

Affectionately
Mother

[3]

Portage June 29th 1883
Dear Dand

I hope this will find you all enjoying good health - - Another year is gone - Three hundred and sixty five days have past - Have silently yet how quickly with all their cares and anxieties - And now we see another of your Birthdays

I trust that as you increase in years - you will also increase in true - happiness and comfort of all kinds -

I expect you begin to feel settled in Lincoln now

I do thank you for the view of your home, you
so kindly sent me - Sarah told me that you had improved it, a good deal after this picture was taken -

I have just spent a week with Sarah at her home and have heard a good deal about Cal -
and seen so many rare things that she has brought home with her - I expect Mary will also have brought some

Sarah looked much better when she came home - but there was so much to be done that I think she looks about as usual

Dear Emma

Your kind welcome letter is before me and I am ashamed to think that I have been so long in writing to you -

I hope you are able to live very happily as you are surrounded with your little furniture although they bring cares - they are 'precious treasures' - Sarah told me as nearly as she could, how every one of them looked - With love I wish them many happy days - Probably they have all forgotten me - but possibly I may yet see them again