Dear Sir

Mr Day handed me several pamphlets, containing your views upon various aspects of Evolution for which I desire to thank you heartily. They are just what I needed & I shall not content myself with reading, but shall study them - I had always your Geology & am more than glad to secure these additional works.

I enclose my Route for several weeks to come, by you will see that I shall have leisure in the Cars for much reading & meditation.

Now, will you allow me to present for your consideration the preparation of a popular manual on Evolution - to meet the wants of the general reading public, and also for Academies & higher institutions of learning.

I want it sent, & every day growing reader -

No one can adequately perform the task who is not at once a trained Scientist & a firm Christian.

Such a work would have a large Circulation &

I have no doubt, that advantageous terms could be made with eminent Publishers.

With sincere appreciation of the work you have done & are doing in the cause of sound Learning,

I am, dear Sir, very truly Yours Henry Ward Beecher
