THE Transnational LAWYER

AN INTERNATIONAL LAW JOURNAL
FOCUSING ON CURRENT ISSUES
OF PRIVATE INTERNATIONAL LAW

Continuing its dedication toward building a comprehensive international law curriculum, UOP McGeorge School of Law has recently established The Transnational Lawyer, a journal of private international law.

Recognized as developing one of the most significant and progressive international law programs in the world, UOP McGeorge School of Law provides the ideal foundation for an international law journal. The Transnational Lawyer will offer scholarly and useful contributions in the field of private international law specifically oriented toward the transnational practitioner. The journal is intended to complement the two existing student-edited McGeorge publications which focus on issues of domestic jurisprudence.

Under the stewardship of a student Board of Editors, McGeorge Faculty Advisors and an International Advisory Board, The Transnational Lawyer will feature articles by legal scholars and advocates from throughout the world relating to global issues particularly relevant to the practice of transnational law.
