

John Muir Correspondence (PDFs)

1893-06-01

Letter from John Muir to Helen [Muir], 1893 Jun 1.

John Muir

Follow this and additional works at: <https://scholarlycommons.pacific.edu/muir-correspondence>

Recommended Citation

Muir, John, "Letter from John Muir to Helen [Muir], 1893 Jun 1." (1893). John Muir Correspondence (PDFs). 914.

<https://scholarlycommons.pacific.edu/muir-correspondence/914>

This Article is brought to you for free and open access by Scholarly Commons. It has been accepted for inclusion in John Muir Correspondence (PDFs) by an authorized administrator of Scholarly Commons. For more information, please contact mgibney@pacific.edu.

New York

June 1, 1893.

My own dear little Helen.

I think the letter you sent me with the pretty flowers was the best you ever wrote & it made me glad when I read it & saw the words & the flowers that your sweet little fingers had touched & written.

I'm glad you like the music box & that Elpie is well & funny & wiggly as ever. New York is very big & there are thousands & thousands of little girls here but none so sweet to me as my own darling Helen. I'll not stay away too long for I'll be in a hurry to see you again but I kiss you lots of times every day just the same as if I were with you. Little Willie is here & sends love to you. When I come to me I'll bring you & Wanda something from Scotland. Tell Wanda I'll write her a letter tomorrow. Your loving papa John Thain