

1893-06-01

Letter from Annie L. Muir to John Muir, 1893 Jun 1.

Annie L. Muir

Follow this and additional works at: <https://scholarlycommons.pacific.edu/muir-correspondence>

Recommended Citation

Muir, Annie L., "Letter from Annie L. Muir to John Muir, 1893 Jun 1." (1893). John Muir Correspondence (PDFs). 916.

<https://scholarlycommons.pacific.edu/muir-correspondence/916>

This Article is brought to you for free and open access by the John Muir Correspondence 1856-1914 at Scholarly Commons. It has been accepted for inclusion in John Muir Correspondence (PDFs) by an authorized administrator of Scholarly Commons. For more information, please contact mgibney@pacific.edu.

Portage, Wis - June 1st 93

Dear Brother John -

Thinking that this might be our last chance for a word of greeting to you, until your return. Mother was anxious that I should write this morning, just to let you know that we were all with you in heart wherever you may be. And to ask you to send us back a word now and again, as you may have opportunity -

But did Mr. Keith meet you in Chicago - or are you lost in that wicked City?

Three letters from Martin for you arrived here, on the morning after you left us. And knowing that you were to go directly to the "Century" office upon your arrival in New York
I forwarded them to the care of the Century Co. And I hope they have reached you ere this -

Anna Waterman & Company are here, renewing old & acquaintances & visiting old scenes - And we are all enjoying the visit -

With love from us both and prayers for your protection & highest good - I am ever your aff. Sister
Ann E. Muir

01670