H. H. PEARSON,

LATE OF THE BALDWIN,
SAN FRANCISCO, CAL.

New York, June 3 1893

My own sweet Helen

Willie wrote you a letter yesterday & went away to Scotland this morning. I am not ready to go yet & so I am here finishing my article but I suppose I'll see him again in Scotland

Perhaps John Burroughs will go to Scotland with me & so I won't be lonely. Willie is always in a hurry & won't wait.

Last night I was at dinner at Mr Gilders house & the night before at the Authors Club, & the night before at Mr Johnsons, & tonight I am going to the Century Club & I see so many people &

724 They make me talk so much I have not much time to write.

Willie feels lonesome without you & so do I. but I won't stay very long. I suppose the cherries are ripe. Everybody thinks your picture & Wanda is lovely. I suppose Wanda & Lou are studying. You must learn to read more, but you can write letters very nice now, & you must write a whole lot & so must Wanda & Mamma I was glad to get Mamma's telegram.

Tell Mamma to send letters care of Mr Johnson & he will send them when he knows where I'll be. & now I send you lots of kisses & I love you dearly Give my love to all the rest dear.
 Helen. From your love, paper John Mamma
