to stop all this as far as possible. Finish my article & get off across the sea. Everybody seems to know me by my writings & I am bigger than a King. But I must get away to work. My first book ought to be out this fall. I wrote you a long letter yesterday. Love

June 15:-

Dear Louis. I was at a grand dinner last night. Got home at half past one. Spoke or rather preached glaciers icebergs auroras flowers forests etc four hours, Got up at six this morning, & still feel well. Drank only one glass of champagne. Mean to try
